GRAMM-BERNSTEIN FILES BANKRUPTCY PROCEEDING

Asks Appointment of Receiver to Protect Interests

ANNOUNCED BY BERNSTEIN

Liabilities of Company Said to Be Heavy

Appointment of a temporary operative receiver for the Gramm-Bernstein Motor Truck Co. by the federal court in Toledo was announced late Thursday afternoon.

This action is the culmination of financial difficulties of the concern which has for several months past been attempting to effect a reorganization. Max Bernstein, vice-president, said Thursday.

Receivership proceedings of a friendly nature were decided upon by the company and the creditors when it became apparent that certain interests were seeking to obtain control of the concern.

Under the present plan, the company will be protected from any judgments which may be obtained by creditors and will be able to work out its reorganization plan unhampered.

Assets of the company are said to be approximately $1,600,000 and the liabilities $1,000,000 and practically all of the creditors have assented to the financial reorganization.

Operation will continue under the present management, it was announced.

COMMISSION WILL NOT DESERT

Will Stand by City Thru Time of Need, They Say

Members of the city commission will stick by the sinking ship and attempt to "carry on" the city's affairs until a revaluation or a vote of the people brings about a better financial condition, it was announced at City Hall Thursday.

The statement refuted the rumors which were rife, following the defeat of the two mill levy, that the entire commission would resign and leave the city government upon its own resources.

There is more need for the city commission and a businesslike government now than there was earlier in the year," Earl Rohn said Thursday. "We are ready to devote our entire efforts to cutting down the payment to fit the suit of clothes ordered by the people."

We will have to cut the police, fire and other departments to the bone and get along the best we can," Mayor Harold Cunningham said. He barred no one for the defeat of the levy at the polls.

WILL NOT DESERT

"I have never deserted a ship when it was sinking," Colonel John H. Hays said Thursday. "I am not going to leave the city government that on its back now."

"It will require our united efforts to maintain a government that will be able to function and it is my opinion that the entire membership of the city commission will see it through to the end."

Ellis Jones and H. R. Breckenridge, could not be reached, the former being engaged in a business transaction and the latter out of the city, but it is understood they are both ready to stand by the city in its time of need.

First steps by the city will be to have the city auditor compile a complete list of the various sources from which the city will be able to draw money next year, C. A. Bingham, city manager, announced.

After it is learned how much money will be available, it will be possible to apportion it among the various departments and decide where the cuts will be made.

Fire and police departments will feel the lack of money more than any other departments as they are running on a very small force at the present time, Bingham said.

Even though the civil service commission should order the city to keep the full force working, the city would not have enough money to pay all of the men and each man would draw only a portion of his pay, it is pointed out.

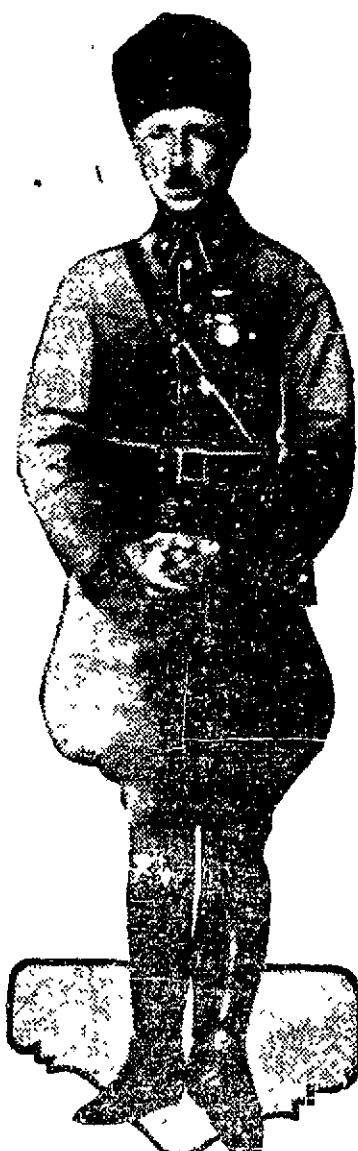

MISTAKE IS REALIZED

Many voters are realizing they made a mistake by refusing to aid the city thru the passage of the two mill levy, Bingham says, and are ready to do something now if it is not too late.

One of the emergency plans which has been talked of informally among the merchants is a merchant police to patrol the downtown section and protect business property from the hands of yeggs.

It is pointed out that as soon as the unprotected condition of the city is known yeggs from all parts of the country will turn their attention to the city and many robberies be

PICKING JURY IN MASSACRE TRIAL

Court Asked to Quash Illinois Mine Indictments

MARION, Ill. — (United Press) Circuit Judge Hartwell, presiding in the trial of five men accused of having participated in the Herrin mine "massacre" last June, was expected to rule today on the motion of attorneys by the defense for quashing of all indictments.

George R. Stone, counsel for the local United Mine Workers, and one of the seven defense attorneys, asked that the indictments be quashed on the ground that the grand jury which returned the accusations was chosen illegally.

Stone claimed the deputy sheriffs who picked the grand jury were appointed by Attorney General Brundage and that the attorney general had prejudiced the story thru interviews with newspapers and by dictating its deliberations.

Pending the court's decision, work of obtaining a jury was resumed.

The first day's court session showed that it is going to be extremely difficult to obtain a jury. Twenty-one veniremen were excused for various causes.

Fifty witnesses on hand at the opening of the hearing were excused until the jury is obtained.

NEWBERRY MAY QUIT SENATE

Resignation of Michigan Senator Expected This Week

DETROIT — (United Press) — That Senator Truman H. Newberry was shortly to hand in his official resignation as a result of aggressive public statements made against him by Democratic Senator-Elect Woodbridge Ferris, was current in political circles thruout the state today.

An unconfirmed report had it that Newberry's resignation would be handed in to Governor Alex. J. Groesbeck before the end of the week, on his own admission.

No confirmation of this report could be obtained although friends of Newberry admitted that such was the senator's intention.

"The unseating of Senator Newberry will mark a big advance thruout the country in the direction of forever eliminating excessive expenditure of money in securing public office," Ferris said, when interviewed at his home in Big Rapids, today.

Newberry was the dominant issue in the election just closed despite the fact that Republicans attempted to dodge or hide the fact.

6 Congressmen And Governor Elected By Democrats Of Ohio

"DRY" VOTE AID TO CABLE

Every County District Disproved of Beer

MAJORITY IS OVER 15,000

Analysis of Congressman's Victory, Is Made

The enormous majority received by John L. Cable, present congressman from the Fourth district, over his Democratic opponent, J. H. Goeke, continues one of the most absorbing questions for discussion among politicians. He carried the district of six counties by more than 7,000 votes, winning majorities in Allen, Auglaize, Darke and Miami-cos, but lost Mercer and Shelby-cos, to Goeke by narrow margins.

Considering that normally the district is strongly Democratic, the election of Cable is considered by political observers to be one of the most astounding incidents of the election in Ohio.

Only once before, Cable's first election, it is recalled, did a Republican carry the Fourth district. That was when J. E. Russell of Sidney was given a majority, but remained only one term, being succeeded two years later by B. F. Welty, of Lima, Democrat. Welty served two terms and was then defeated, two years ago, by Cable, carrying the district by 4,984.

RESULT PEZZLING

In an attempt to arrive at an conclusion as to the reason for the turn-over, politicians are stumped. The personal popularity of Cable and the fact that the Anti-Saloon league was strictly against Goeke also contributed no small part to the general result it is stated. The fact that Cable received the support of the dry organization is considered one of the factors that contributed to his enormous vote.

According to unofficial figures, Cable carried Miami-co by 3,934; Allen-co by 3,731; Auglaize by 979 and Darke 207. Goeke won in Mercer by 1,048 and in Shelby by 687.

BOTKINS NARROW WINNER

By the narrow margin of 15 votes over his opponent it is shown that Harry Botkins is elected treasurer of Allegheny, defeating N. W. Basinger of Blanton. The unofficial majority for Botkins was placed at 24 for Botkins late Wednesday, but while the figures were being proved up Wednesday night it was found that Basinger received 10 more votes and Botkins one more than had been tabulated.

Another narrow "squeak" in being elected was found in the contest between Dr. A. C. Adams to replace Short Term, names written in Nicholas Kline, 287; George Clark, 255.

W. E. Baxter, Republican, if Elida, for representative, also won by a narrow margin over C. M. Miller, his Democratic opponent. The majority is unofficially placed at 160. The official count may change it, board of elections officials state. However, it is stated by the men who tabulated the figures that there is little question about the election of Baxter, Botkins and Adams.

AMENDMENTS "KILLED"

The debt limitation and taxation classification amendments were decided opposed in Allen-co, according to results of the vote on these propositions as tabulated. The opposition was practically two to one. This county gave a "dry" majority of 5,829 on the beer amendment and 8,313 majority against fair ground bonds, while the voters of the city registered a verdict of 3,628 against daylight time, 769 against the two mill levy and gave the school bond proposition a majority of 2,308.

Stacks of ballots sent in from the different precincts, marked in all sorts of freakish ways, were up to the members of the board to pass on. Many of them were discarded, as not revealing the desire of the voter, therefore could not be counted. Many persons developed a penchant for writing on ballots, where only crosses are necessary to show the sentiment of the voter.

DONAHAY BY 2,000

Whereas Donahay, Democratic candidate for governor, was given a majority in Allen-co two years ago over Governor Davis of 64, he won out in Allen-co over Thompson this year by exactly 2,000.

Oddities of the result of the vote in Allen, as well as in other counties of the state, is still the main topic of conversation. Political disbelievers are unable to arrive at definite conclusions to attempt.

Chatfield May be Defeated by Bloom In Contest for Lieutenant Governor—Donahay and Fess Elected—Beer and Wine Defeated

(BULLETIN)

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — A Victor Donahay, Democrat of New Philadelphia, was elected governor of Ohio at Tuesday's election by a plurality of 16,330 votes over Carmi A. Thompson, Republican of Cleveland, according to the complete unofficial vote tabulated at 1:15 p. m. today by The Associated Press.

The complete unofficial vote for United States senator, as tabulated at 1:15 p. m. showed Fess to have defeated Pomerene by 52,013 votes.

COLUMBUS — (Associated Press) — Recovering from their surprise over the many unusual features of Tuesday's elections, Ohio voters today stopped to appraise the results of their balloting.

They found that they had selected A. V. Donahay, a Democrat, to be their next governor, had furnished him with a strongly Republican legislature; had given the state two Republican senators for the first time in twelve years by electing Congressman Simon D. Fess as the colleague of Senator Willis; had substituted a congressional delegation composed of sixteen Republicans and six Democrats, for the twenty-two Republicans elected in the landslide of 1920, and probably had given the state its first woman justice of the supreme court in the person of Common Pleas Judge Florence E. Allen of Cleveland.

Allen of Cleveland, still was maintaining a considerable lead over Supreme Court Justice Benson W. Hough in the race for one of the seats on the state supreme court bench in additional races received today. In more than three-fourths of the state, Miss Allen had a lead of more than 20,000 votes over Hough. The vote in 6,339 precincts out of a total of 8,167 in the state was 49,416 for Hough 32,027. On returns from the same number of precincts Judge Robert H. Day of Canton was leading all candidates by a wide margin, his lead over Miss Allen being 76,135.

In the doubtful lieutenant governor race, Earl D. Bloom had a lead of 1,086 votes over William H. Chatfield, Republican, in 6,985 precincts. The vote on lieutenant governor was Bloom 47,020; Chatfield 68,938.

CRABBE HAS BIG LEAD

C. C. Crabbe, Republican, had assumed a commanding lead over Stephen M. Young, Democrat, in the race for attorney general. Crabbe's majority in 6,952 of the 8,167 precincts being 62,973.

With only fifty precincts still to report, A. V. Donahay, Democrat, was leading Carmi A. Thompson, Republican, 18,012 in the gubernatorial race. The vote was:

Donahay 810,791; Thompson 792,779. Congressman S. D. Fess continued to increase his majority over Senator Allee Pomerene as the state's total vote neared completion. With only fifty precincts missing, Fess' majority was 47,314. The vote was: Fess 751,240; Pomerene 731,926.

THE MAJORITY AGAINST THE BEER AND WINE AMENDMENT had increased to more than 150,000 with 453 precincts still to report. The vote was:

For the amendment 674,099; against amendment 827,576.

Tabulations this morning gave the following results on other candidates and amendments:

Secretary of state (6,955 precincts): Brown (R) 723,722; Fulton (D) 600,339.

State treasurer (6,985 precincts): Day (R) 741,181; Hiler (D) 688,493.

Taxation amendment (5,843 precincts): For amendment 392,806; against amendment 626,952.

Debt limitation amendment (5,827 precincts): For amendment 408,305; against amendment 514,473.

Supreme court judges (6,339 precincts): Allen (Ind.) 49,416; Day (R) 49,416; Hough (R) 32,027; Matthews (D) 356,257; Price (D) 294,333.

Twenty-second district, Theodore Burton, Republican, Cleveland.

LOSES 76 SEATS IN CONGRESS

Majority in House Reduced to Scant Handful

SENATE VOTE CUT IN TWO

Later Reports May Add to Democratic Gains

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — Continued Republican control of congress, but with a senate majority cut in two and a house majority cut in two and a scant handful, appeared today as the net result of last Tuesday's congressional elections with returns almost complete.

Election of R. Scott Leavitt, Republican, in Montana, gave the Republicans the 218 votes necessary to control the next house, but even these Republican findings were coupled with news of defeat of Representative McCormick, Republican, Montana, by his Democratic opponent, John Evans.

With seven congressional districts, Kansas, North Dakota, Washington and West Virginia—still unreported, the roll in the house stood:

Republicans 220; Democrats 205; Socialist 1; Farmer-Labor 1 and Independent 1. In the returns to date seventy-six places now held by Republicans had been captured without a single counter-balancing Democratic loss.

TWO CONTESTS IN DOUBT

Heated returns did not add to the fifty per cent cut in the senate Republican majority sustained in the earlier tallies. They brought word, however, of the definite re-election of Senator King, Democrat, Utah, of Senator Jones, Democrat, New Mexico, and of another Democratic victory in Montana where Burton R. Wheeler was elected over Carl W. Bickel, Republican, to succeed Senator Myers, Democrat. Only two senatorial contests remained greatly in doubt, those in Washington, where former Representative Dill, Democrat, was leading Senator Poindexter, Republican, and in North Dakota where the Democratic candidate, J. P. T. O'Connor, was leading former Governor Lynn J. Frazier, Republican.

Later returns also brought news of the defeat of another Republican veteran of the house, Representative Halvor Steigerson, of Minnesota, chairman of the postoffice committee, by a Farmer-Laborite, Knud W. Ewald.

RECOUNTS DEMANDED

In the few remaining contests the fight was so close that talk of recounts, recounts and official counts was rife. Most notable perhaps was a statement from Colonel William A. Garton that he would demand a recount in his race against Senator Lodge of Ohio, a Republican leader, despite the latter's increased lead, thru correction of a tally error, from 1,045 to 8,423.

Senator Dupont of Delaware, Republican, defeated on the face of returns by Thomas F. Bayard, Democrat, refused to concede defeat and his managers said an official recount would be sought. Senator Poindexter in Washington also was seeking a recount.

RED CROSS READY FOR ROLL CALL

Population of County Set as Goal by Workers

DRIVE OPENS ARMISTICE DAY

Evangelistic Rally and Churches to Aid Campaign

The population of Allen-co has been set as the goal for the coming campaign of Red Cross workers here.

This announcement was made following a meeting of committees in charge of the annual roll call, held late Wednesday at the Ellis home.

Plans were laid for the coming drive which will be opened in this county Armistice day.

Co-operation between Red Cross workers and religious officials was arranged for. Promise was given the committees that the Biederwolf Evangelistic rally to be held here next week will participate actively in the drive for new and renewed memberships. Active promotion of the Red Cross campaign will take place from the pulpit at the tabernacle it was announced.

RED CROSS SUNDAY
Sunday has been designated by the committee as Red Cross Sunday. Pastors throughout the city have been asked to make the work of the organization the theme of the service for the day. A hearty and favorable response has been given the committee by preachers.

The campaign will be concentrated from the beginning. More than 500 workers will swarm the streets of Lima and other Allen-co towns, Saturday, seeking members for the organization. Armistice day will be given added color when the women who will the members will wear the brilliant red cross on white background, the insignia of the organization.

Previous to the opening of the drive on that day, boy scouts will distribute hand bills and other advertisements announcing the approaching campaign and its plans.

The drive will continue thru the week. Memberships sell from one dollar up depending upon the generosity of those purchasing them. They give the applicant membership in both the national and local organization.

A. C. Calhoun is general chairman of the Allen-co campaign.

Announcement Extraordinary!

Beginning Tomorrow—Friday Morning We Will Place On Special Sale

Our Entire Stock of Fur-Trimmed Suits

at 33 1/3 % Discount!

-On Prices Which Range From $45⁰⁰ to and Including $195⁰⁰

The Reason For the Sale?

To tell the sincere truth it is nothing more than TIMELINESS! Nothing like "needing the money," "special purchase," or the other stereotyped reasons affect this sale—for the first is ridiculous, and the second is to be ignored for the fact that merchandise sold under the Special Purchase label is apt to be worth only the price which is asked for it.

It is our entire, wonderful stock of suits that is being offered,—not one reserved or less reduced. They were chosen late in the Fall buying season by the Bluem Staff Coat and Suit Buyer, -- and it took some time to assemble them. Only the best fabrics and furs, and the most authentic styles were admitted, and the factor of moderate, reasonable price was well considered.

—Cut one-third of the regular price, when the season is not half through—four months of seasonable wear ahead of them—does it not leave you wondering? Since a number of the present stock—those remaining when the Pre-Xmas Garment Sales, or the January Clearances come must be sacrificed at two-thirds, half or even less than half of their prices, it has been Bluem's decision to make the reduction early, when the costumes are at the height of their season—when the opportunity can be well appreciated. For one-third off now is worth more than on—half off when the suits are less seasonable.

The Sale is sensational in that it is a step farther than has ever been gone before—and the offer is made unconditionally! Those who are considering suits now in stock will receive full benefit of the sale prices—alteration and credit privileges will be the same. And the same splendid reputation that has built a permanent patronage around the name of Bluem protects all purchases—as always.

More than ample floor space, and the best of considerate service will enable you to make your decision as deliberate as you wish. It is advisable to make your choice as soon after the opening of the sale as possible however, for in Bluem sales of this type the choicest garments go astonishingly quick. The Suit Section will be in readiness at 8:15 tomorrow morning.

These Twelve Suits Picked At Random From the Entire Stock Will Give You a Concrete Idea of the Values From Which You Will Select--

PICKS ALLEY FOR BED, LANDS IN DELPHOS JAIL

Bad choice was shown by "Roxey" Edmister, 10, in picking his nightly lodging. In Delphos Wednesday night, hence he was given warmer quarters in the city bastille.

According to police, "Roxey" became saturated with hooch and picked out a soft spot in an alley east of Main-st. to lie down, in plain view of the police station. He was soon, his slumbers interrupted and given until Thursday afternoon to recover sufficiently for a hearing in the mayor's court.

TO OBSERVE FETE ON SUNDAY

Delphos Plans to Honor Armistice and Soldiers

At a meeting Thursday night of Commemorative Post, Delphos American Legion, plans for observance of Armistice Day on Sunday will be mapped out. Commanding G. L. McKenzie will request all Delphos citizens to participate in service at graves of fallen soldiers and sailors.

A parade of uniformed ex-service men will be formed. Efforts are being made to secure the Delphos Ladies' band. Owing to Armistice Day occurring on Saturday, no effort will be made by Delphos merchants to close their stores.

McKenzie has issued the following proclamation with respect to observance of the day:

"Armistice Day is your day. Four years ago on November 11, the allied armies under Foch were enabled to bring the great war to a close because of the fighting qualities and the fresh strength of the American armies under Pershing.

"It is your duty to keep alive the fervor and love of country which brought that victory. Armistice Day is a day for renewing inspiration in patriotism in every Ohio community. The leadership in the parades and ceremonies that should be held on that day belongs to you.

"Legionnaires of Ohio, front and center—sound off!"

"The people of every community should see that where patriotism and love of country are involved, the American Legion takes the lead. Let all the citizens of Delphos know that the American Legion desires to serve in time of peace as its members served in time of war under the banner of patriotism and love of country."

Are you proud of your teeth?

—the right dentifrice will quickly make them gleam white and bright

Listerine Tooth Paste, made by the Lambert Pharmaceutical Company, makers of Listerine, contains just the right cleansing agent. It is hard enough to remove daily formation of tartar, yet not hard enough to scratch or injure the enamel. You take no chances with it.

Avoid dentifrices that attack the enamel

Guard the precious enamel of your teeth. Don't scratch it with a paste containing harsh abrasives. This enamel can never be replaced.

Also avoid soaps and other alkalis

Dental authorities now agree that the ideal dentifrice should contain no soaps or other alkaline ingredients. These work against Nature; they lessen the natural saliva flow and hasten tooth decay. Mild fruit acids, on the other hand, such as Listerine Tooth Paste contains, aid Nature in preserving the teeth.

Clean your teeth thoroughly and pleasantly

Notice how delightfully fresh and clean your mouth feels after you use Listerine Tooth Paste. It's natural that it should feel so. Listerine Tooth Paste is made to work that way—to clean your teeth thoroughly and pleasantly, and help you keep your teeth and gums in their natural healthy condition.

Listerine Tooth Paste works naturally

Notice how your mouth waters when you use it. That is because the fruit acid elements in Listerine Tooth Paste—grape, orange, apple and grapefruit—stimulate the flow of saliva. Saliva is good for the teeth and gums. That's one of the purposes for which saliva is provided. Again, notice the clean feeling. Your teeth will feel clean after you use Listerine Tooth Paste thoroughly, because they are clean.

—the paste that's right at the price that's right

It is antiseptic—like Listerine

Listerine Tooth Paste is doing the same thing that Listerine did. Listerine is a safe antiseptic for all to use. It brings into your home an effective weapon against infections. Just so, Listerine Tooth Paste, used conscientiously, makes it easy to give your teeth and gums the right kind of care. Do not neglect, however, to visit your dentist at least several times a year.

Note how quickly your teeth will improve

Get from your drug dealer a tube of Listerine Tooth Paste. The price is 25 cents. Give it a thorough trial—three brushings a day is the best method. Then note how white and bright your teeth will gleam—how the condition of your gums will improve. And know all the while that you are using a dentifrice that is perfectly safe—that cannot injure your teeth.

Listerine Tooth Paste is safe and efficient

—because it contains the correct polishing agent; removes tartar safely; can't injure the enamel;
—because it contains mild fruit acids (instead of harmful soaps and alkalis) to stimulate the saliva that Nature intended to keep your teeth healthy;
—because it contains the healing antiseptic essential oils contained in Listerine.

LONDON CLAIMS FINANCIAL RULE

New York Supremacy Denied by English Brokers

ADMIT U. S. HAS MOST MONEY

America Lacking in Machinery, However, They Say

(BY DAVID L. BLUMENFELD) LONDON.—(United Press).—Is London still the financial centre of the world or has the heart of finance been transferred to New York?

The answer given exclusively to the United Press by the president of one of the world's biggest and most influential banking concerns is that London remains and will continue to remain the head of world finance.

"There may be more money in America—there is," he explained, "but the machinery for world movement which exists in London, which has been built up thru generations of adventure, expansion, failure and success, cannot be scrapped by the mere passing momentary influences of financial incidents—such as wars and financial crashes.

"When the war was over, and the accumulated savings of five hundred years of British world trade had been passed over to the United States to pay for war material, the uninitiated said: This means the passing of London as the headquarters of finance. This means that in future New York and not London will set the pace.

"But just as Vienna, the capital of a ruined and wrecked State, remains the financial headquarters of central Europe, particularly the Balkan country, just as Frankfurt, thruout the generations and even into the heights of imperial Germany continued—and still continues—to hold the German financial sceptre, so does London with its race of financial experts schooled in the history, the ethics and all the secrets of universal money matters, continue to direct and attract the world's money market.

MATTER OF EXPEDIENCY
There is no race or contest for superiority. The financier of the London market would not mind two pins if he had to go to New York for financial direction. It wouldn't worry him in the least if he had to go to New York or Spitzbergen. It is not a question of civic or national pride. It is a matter of expediency.

"Here is the financial machine, built up, developed, completed thru years and years and years of experience and personal touch.

"Put it this way, and it will be better understood by American readers. Why do people when they talk of ready made clothes instinctively turn to Rochester, N. Y.? Because Rochester thru years of experience and effort has become the principal ready made clothing town of the world. That is a trade mark and asset. The same applies to furniture in Grand Rapids, Mich., it applied to beer in Milwaukee, it applies to corn and beef in Chicago.

"The Chicago pork packers know all about pork packing and the grain brokers have a command of their business which gives the rest of the world complete confidence in that capacity.

"That is why the international financiers of London, with their control of the intangible machine, have the pull.

"Another illustration: Queen Elizabeth's merchant adventurers whom she sent out, the Frobishers, the Drakes, and the Raleighs—to gather in the golden harvest, laid a foundation of personal influence across the seven seas which has never been disrupted.

"People who did business with London three hundred years ago have maintained their connections, thru their descendants, so that naturally if a man in Antigua, or a man in Foo-Chow, or one in Cape Town, has a large financial proposition he turns to his London connections.
"The methods of procedure have changed a good deal even in the last ten years.
"The individual princes of finance have disappeared, death has exacted its toll, and where that has not intervened, banking amalgamations have done the rest. The individual financiers such as Rothschilds, Swaythling, Panmure Gordon, Morrison, the Gurneys, the Smiths, the Mills, and the Curries—all of them world famous a generation ago—have disappeared.
"In their place, in charge of the wonderful machine, are five great banking institutions, known as the 'Big Five,' which in the course of a generation have mopped up the thousands of private banking concerns and today control the millions which are the leverage of British credit. Without the 'Big Five' there would probably have been an enormous financial crash during the world war. The smaller industrial concerns couldn't have maintained themselves against the pressure. The 'Big Five' working in harmony with the Bank of England, stood up like the Rock of Gibraltar.
"The greatest of the 'Big Five' is the London City and Midland Bank,

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which calomel does without any of its bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effect. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered this formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowels and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 15c and 30c.

and its head is Reginald McKenna, who has just returned here from a tour in the United States.

"Now the strange thing about this is that the great bankers of London today are individually poor men. They are professional bankers, working on salaries which would be considered exceedingly small in America.

"Personally they neither speculate nor deal in money."

FLAG POLE LACK DEPLORED BY CITIZENS OF DELPHOS

Absence of a centrally located flag pole in Delphos is seen as a handicap for patriotic demonstrations.

Formerly at flag-raising ceremonies a big pole on the National Bank building at the corner of Main and Second-sts was used. It finally disappeared and a huge standard in the center of the Main and Third-st intersection took its place. That, too, was relegated to disuse when a traffic post supplanted it.

W. G. Point, Delphos, band leader, a firm advocate of the flag ceremony, deplores the lack of a suitable pole located in the heart of the city. It will be missed, he says, if the American Legion carries out its plan to observe Armistice Day Sunday.

Five Desires We met in Shaving Cream

Gentlemen:
We asked 1,000 men what they most desired in a Shaving Cream.

Then we set out to meet those desires as no one else had done.

For 60 years we have studied soap making and developed a world-wide fame. The leading toilet soap in existence—Palmolive—is one of our creations. So we are qualified.

We spent 18 months on this Shaving Cream. We tried out and tested 130 formulas. So we have done our best.

Now we simply ask a trial at our cost.

Five supremacies

In these five ways Palmolive Shaving Cream excels any soap you know.

The lather is abundant. The soap multiplies itself in lather 250 times.

The action is quick. The beard is softened in one minute.

The lather lasts—maintains its creamy fullness for ten minutes on the face.

The bubbles are strong. They support the hairs for cutting, while weak bubbles let hairs fall down.

The after effects are delightful, due to palm and olive oils.

The soap you are using, however well you like it, cannot match Palmolive in those five respects. We ask you to prove that. Make this free test, in fairness to yourself and us. Cut out the coupon now.

BOTTLES TAPPED, JUSTICE SAYS

Confiscated Hooch Illicit, County Officials Believe

217 QUARTS DESTROYED

Three Saved for Examination by Federal Men

An examination of the bottles containing 220 quarts of whiskey seized when Ben Brown, Cleveland, was arrested here on liquor charges, shows that practically all of them have been tapped with an electric needle, Justice E. M. Botkin declared Thursday.

The discovery convinces prosecuting Attorney Eugene T. Lippincott and Justice Botkin that the whiskey brought to Lima by Brown, is not bonded goods, even the revenue stamps may be found later to be genuine.

Removing bonded whiskey from bottles bearing stamps showing the date of withdrawal from warehouse, is a practice that was prevalent long before the act of prohibition.

The bottom of the vessel is tapped with an electric needle, the contents drained out and cheap liquor substituted. The glass is then resealed.

LIQUOR DESTROYED
Destruction of the 220 quarts of whiskey was carried out by Sheriff Baxter Wednesday night, in the presence of Justice Botkin, prosecuting Attorney Lippincott, R. T. Gregg, Brown, L. H. Rogers and William Deutsch, Cleveland, Brown assisted in pouring the contraband beverage into a sewer.

Inability of the state to prove that Deutsch knew of Brown's operations, or the purpose for which the car was used, enabled him to resist the machine.

Deutsch declared he often loaned the car to Brown, who in return kept it in good repair. Brown took the machine while Deutsch was in New York it was shown.

In the absence of testimony to the contrary, Justice Botkin decided to release the machine.

Reduction of Brown's fines, amounting to $2,000, has been refused by the justice. It is a matter for the county commissioners to determine. The commissioners, declare they have not considered the matter.

Three quarts of liquor were retained by Sheriff Baxter to submit to federal revenue men. The labels and stamps will be examined to determine if they are genuine or forged.

FERGUSON WINS

Elected State Senator by Majority of 1,000

Earl F. Ferguson, Van Wert attorney, son-in-law of T. M. Berry of Sponcerville, formerly state senator from the 32d Ohio district, has followed in the footsteps of Henry Ford and has been elected to the place formerly held by the Sponcerville man.

Incomplete count of the ballots show majorities for Ferguson in four of the seven counties. Ferguson carried Allen by 336, Auglaize 208, Defiance 155, Mercer 2198. He lost Van Wert, Williams and Paulding counties to Elmer L. Shafer, his Republican opponent, who is also a resident of Van Wert and is blind.

It is believed Ferguson's majority will be near 1,000. Shafer was a candidate for second term.

FALL CIRCUS TO BE MADE ANNUAL EVENT AT SOUTH

DEFEATS FEATURE COUNTY VOTE

School Centralization, Bond Issues, Fall in Election

Centralized schools were denied Monroe township, according to the result of the vote in the territory Tuesday.

A total of 319 registered their disapproval of the proposition, while 185 favored it.

In the same connection, a proposition to issue bonds for the erection of a centralized school was defeated, 307 to 53.

At West Cairo a tax levy proposition was defeated. The vote was 52 for and 110 against.

In Richland township tax levy was 70 for and 288 against.

Sponcerville voters voted 226 to 221 against a bond issue of $43,000 and 224 to 208 against an issue of $20,000 for public improvements.

Sugar Creek township favored centralized schools by a vote of 255 to 95.

Proposed amendment to the constitution of the state on debt limitation was opposed by the voters of Allen county by a vote of 10,555 for to 4,829 against.

Proposed amendment to the constitution on classification of property for taxation was also in ill favor with the voters of the county. A total of 19,351 voted against it, while 5,335 voted for it.

ARMISTICE PARADE BEING FORMED

32 Organizations to Take Part in Long Procession

Thirty-two organizations will take part in the Armistice Day parade Saturday, reports to the committee show. This will be the largest number that has ever participated in a parade in Allen county, it is believed.

Organization of the procession is now in the hands of a committee. Arrangement of the participants together with the route of the march will be announced by the committee later in the week.

A counter-march permitting members of the parade to see a portion of it, proposed Wednesday, will be impossible and the idea will be given up, it has been announced.

A change has been made in the program regarding the three minutes of silence in the afternoon of Saturday. As the parade will be a large one, it is possible that it will not all be in motion by 2 p. m. For this reason it has been agreed that the bombs announcing the beginning of the three minute period will be fired as soon as the parade reaches the intersection of High and Main streets on its return trip.

Ex-service men are responding to the call and will be seen in the parade in large numbers. Colonel John Harter is anxious that every service man in the county be in uniform and in the parade. The soldiers will meet in front of the Buckeye Pipeline bldg., at 1 p. m. Saturday.

Every indication points to some very interesting and instructive programs in the schools Friday. Speakers will be furnished to the public and all municipal high schools. Teachers in the same schools will arrange their own exercises.

SITUATION GRAVE IN NEAR EAST

British Soldiers Killed in Clash With Turks

ALLIES TOLD TO WITHDRAW

Americans Go Down in Great Crash in Smyrna

(BY LLOYD ALLEN)
LONDON, (United Press).—British soldiers have been killed at Constantinople, apparently in a clash with the Turks and the situation is extremely grave, according to latest advices from the Near East.

Mustapha Kemal, sent a note to the French high commissioner, reiterating his demand that "the allied forces withdraw from Constantinople and that allied warships be removed from their position in the straits, according to Constantinople dispatches.

Two British soldiers were killed evidently by Turks near Kessim, one report said. Negro Constantinople dispatches gave no details. The Near Eastern Cable Company reported the Turkish nationalists had cut the London Constantinople cables near Chankai.

Communication between Western Europe and the Porte depends on unreliable telegraph via Budapest. KEMALIST ATTITUDE STIFFER.

PARIS, (Associated Press).—The troubled state of affairs in Constantinople may not be getting any worse, but there certainly seems to be no improvement in good feeling between the Kemalists and the allied commissioners.

Colonel Charpy, commander of the French troops in the Constantinople area told his correspondent he considered the situation one of the greatest nature.

Despite allied protest, however, Rafet Pasha has made good all of the measures recently taken by the Nationalists except the higher customs duties which he imposed on foodstuffs.

The attitude of the Kemalists he comes stiffer every day and the extremists seem to be in power at Ankara.

AMERICANS SUSPENDED
SMYRNA, (Associated Press).—Commerce is completely paralyzed throughout Asia Minor. One by one the banks of Smyrna are closing and the Kemalists have sealed the vaults of most of the banking institutions because they would not furnish the Nationalist authorities with lists of their Greek and American accounts.

Several American tobacco companies have suspended operations and are preparing to transfer their stock to the United States.

The only American firm which is continuing to do business is the Standard Oil Company, whose products are paid for by the Turks in Bolshevik gold.

The order for all the banks to furnish lists of their Greek and Armenian accounts was issued yesterday by the Kemalists authorities.

The National Bank of Turkey voluntarily closed its doors on the announced grounds that there no longer was any business.

The Kemalists have drawn up plans for the reconstruction of the city but no funds are available for building work of any kind.

HEARING ON RATE CASE OPENS

Proposed Readjustment Argued at Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, (Associated Press)

With representatives of five cities on the Ohio river aligned in opposition to the proposed new north and south freight rates and with more than an equal number of representatives here in favor of the readjustment of the rates, the hearing on the southeastern rate case being conducted by the interstate commerce commission got under way here today.

The proposed adjustment in rates is for a uniform rate from northern territory to southern territory and vice versa, instead of the present method of adding to the rate from the northern shipping point to Cincinnati, the rate from this centralization point to the south. The proposed adjustment, it is alleged, will bring cities in the northern central part of the country into direct and unjust competition with Cincinnati shippers.

Cairo, Ill., Paducah, Ky., Evansville, Ind., Louisville, Ky., and Cincinnati will have delegations at the hearing to protest against the rates which they say are a detriment to shippers of their respective cities.

Delegations from Chicago, Pittsburgh, Toledo, Cleveland, Columbus, Boston and several other cities are here in favor of the adjustment in rates.

Joseph B. Eastman, a member of the commission announced that the hearings would last about 10 days or two weeks and that following this hearing another would be held in New York, the first of next month.

Mr. Eastman is accompanied by Examiner W. H. Wagner.

Hearings on the proposed north and south through rates have been held in Asheville, N. C., Atlanta and New Orleans. Following the New York hearing, the testimony accumulated at the hearings will be condensed and a report submitted to the commission. Arguments on the case are expected to be heard some time during the first two months of 1923.

NEW STAR RISES IN OPERA

Little Western Girl Acclaimed as Great Singer

NEW YORK — (United Press).—A little girl from Kansas City, daughter of a railroad telegrapher, is on her way back west today with the plaudits and predictions of the world's greatest and most critical critics still ringing in her ears—proclaiming her a possible star of the operatic firmaments of the future.

Marion Talley, who yesterday, on the bare, shadowed stage of the great empty Metropolitan Opera house, moved Gatti-Casazza, Moranzoni, Otto Kahn and others to extravagant praise with a marvelous lyric soprano that was almost colostrata, is going back home to help mother with the dishes, attend school and study for three years.

Kansas City has acclaimed Marion at 15 a girl wonder. But the opinion of New York impresarios is usually somewhat different from that of an ambitious maiden's home town. So many voices, heralded as marvelous, turn out to be just "good." Otto Kahn declared, describing his feelings as he went to the opera house yesterday prepared to tell Marion's parents as kindly as possible that their daughter was not extraordinary.

Friends who had brought the girl east succeeded in persuading Kahn to hear her. By good fortune, several prominent directors were present at the trial. It was conducted in the great, gloomy opera house, under conditions that would not have encouraged the greatest artist.

The accompanist began to play the smooth introduction to the aria "Knowest Thou The Land?" from Mignon, and Marion sang. She sang clearly, in a beautiful lyric soprano and her voice filled the great opera house, seemingly without effort.

The girl's parents, who had been shifting nervously in their seats, regained their confidence as they heard the voice they knew so well swelling out into the dark corners of the auditorium.

The great musicians listened and realized as the song continued that it was not one of the many who are hailed as prodigies and disappear unknown.

WALKER DRAWS WORKHOUSE SENTENCE ON DRUNK PLE

W. W. Walker promised Judge Jackson that he would not be brought into police court any more on a charge of being drunk, after pleading guilty Thursday morning.

Judge Jackson made sure the Walker would live up to his promise for a month at least, by sentencing him to 30 days in the Toledo workhouse and fining him $25.

J. W. Schendel, 232 S. Jackson st., pleaded not guilty to being drunk and will be tried Thursday afternoon.

You Can Now Try This Newer Form Of Iron At My Expense

Years ago I began to wonder at the great number of my own friends and neighbors who were weak, nervous, and run-down. One had pains in the back and thought he had kidney trouble. Another had pains around the heart, palpitations and dizziness, and was sure he was suffering from heart disease. Still others had severe headaches, floating spots before the eyes, tender spots along the spine and a great variety of alarming symptoms.

For years I made a special study of this condition, consulting a great number of physicians and chemists. An immense number of investigations by physicians all over the country showed that three people out of every four you meet lack 100% iron in their blood. Lack of iron in the blood is the greatest of all debilitating weaknesses. It is the iron in your blood that enables you to get the nourishment out of your food. Without iron, nothing you eat does you any good. Your heart, lungs and kidneys and all your vital organs get their nourishment from the blood stream, and when the blood lacks iron and is thin, pale and watery, you may suffer from the symptoms of a great number of diseases when the real and true cause of all your troubles is a lack of iron in the blood.

In the old days people often took metallic iron, which some physicians claim is not absorbed at all. In compounding this newer form of iron which I call Nuxated Iron, I employed a special form of iron, which is like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples. Unlike the older forms of iron, it will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach, and it is ready for almost immediate absorption and assimilation by the blood. It is the people whose blood is rich in iron who possess great strength, force and energy. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test:

EPISODE TWELVE
Her Highness Intervenes
CHAPTER I

Toward noon the wind changed, and about one o'clock it began to snow.

Eve, exhausted, lay on the sofa in her bedroom. Her step-father lay on a table in the dance hall below, covered by a sheet from his own bed. And beside him sat Trooper Stormont, waiting.

It was snowing heavily when Mr. Lyken, the little undertaker from Ghost Lake, arrived with several assistants, a casket, and what he called "swell trimmings."

Long ago Mike Clinch had selected his own mortuary site and had driven a section of iron pipe into the ground on a ferry knoll overlooking Star Pond. In explanation he grimly remarked to Eve that after death he preferred to be planted where he could not trespass.

Here two of Mr. Lyken's able assistants dug a grave while the digging was still good; for if Mike Clinch was to lie underground that season there might be need of haste—no weather prophet ever having successfully forecast Adirondack weather.

Eve, exhausted by shock and a sleepless night, was spared the more harrowing details of the corner's visit and the subsequent jaunty activities of Mr. Lyken and his efficient assistants.

She had managed to dress herself in a black wool gown, intending to watch by Mike, but Stormont's blunt authority prevailed and she lay down for an hour's rest.

The hour lengthened into many hours; the girl slept heavily on her sofa under blankets laid over her by Stormont.

All that dark, snowy day she slept, mercifully unconscious of the proceedings below.

In its own mysterious way the snow penetrated the wilderness; and out of the desolation of forest and swamp and mountain drifted the people who somehow existed there—a few shy, half wild young girls, a dozen silent, lank men, two or three of Clinch's own people, who stood silently about in the falling snow and lent a hand whenever requested.

One long-shanked youth cut hemlock to line the grave; others erected a little fence of silver birch around it, making of the enclosure a plot.

A gaunt old woman from "God knows where" added Mr. Lyken at intervals; a pretty, sulky-eyed girl with her slovenly red-headed sister cooked for anybody who desired nourishment.

When Mike was ready to hold the inevitable reception everybody filed into the dance hall. Mr. Lyken was master of ceremonies; Trooper Stormont stood with a tall and straight by the head of the casket.

Clinch wore a vague, indefinable smile and his best clothes—that same smile which had so troubled Jose Quintana.

Light was fading fast in the room when the last visitor took silent leave of Clinch and rejoined the groups in the kitchen, where were the funeral baked meats.

Eve still slept. Descending again from his room, Trooper Stormont encountered Trooper Lardis below.

"Has anybody picked up Quintana's tracks?" inquired the former.

"Not so far. An Inspector and two State Game Protectors are out beyond Owl Marsh. The Troopers from Five Lakes are on the job, and we have enforcement men along Browning Valley from The Scaur to Harrod Place."

"Does Darragh know?"

"Yes. He is there with Mike. He brought a lot of flowers from Harrod Place."

The two Troopers went into the dance hall where Darragh was at-ranging the flowers from his green-houses.

Stormont said quietly: "All right, Jim, but Eve must not know that they came from Harrod's."

Darragh nodded: "How is she, Jack?"

"All in."

"Do you know the story?"

"Yes. Mike went into Drowned Valley early last evening after Quintana. He didn't come back. Before dawn this morning Eve located Quintana, set a bear trap for him, and caught him with the goods."

"What goods?" demanded Darragh sharply.

"Well she got his pack and found Mike's watch and jewelry in it."

"What jewelry?"

"The jewels Quintana was after. But that was after she'd arrived at the Dump, here, leaving Quintana to get free of the trap and beat it."

"That's how I met her—half crazed, going to find Quintana again. We'd found Mike in Drowned Valley and were bringing him out when I ran into Eve. . . . I brought her back here and called Ghost Lake. . . . They haven't picked up Quintana's tracks so far."

After a silence: "Too bad this snow came so late," remarked Trooper Lardis. But we ought to get Quintana anyway."

Darragh went over and looked silently at Mike Clinch.

"I like you," he said under his breath. "It wasn't your fault. And it wasn't mine, Mike. . . . I'll try to square things. Don't worry."

He came back slowly to where Stormont was standing near the door.

"Jack," he said, "you can't marry Eve on a Trooper's pay. Why not quit and take over the Harrod business together later if you like."

After a pause: "That's rather wonderful of you, Jim," said Stormont, "but you don't know what sort of business man I'd make."

"I know what sort of officer you made. . . . I'm taking no chance. . . . And I'll make my peace with Eve—or somebody will do it for me. . . . Is it settled then?"

"Thanks," said Trooper Stormont, reddening. They clasped hands. Then Stormont went about and lighted the candles in the room.

Clinch's face, again revealed, was still faintly amused at something or other. The dead have much to be amused at.

As Darragh was about to go, Stormont said: "We're burying Clinch at eleven tomorrow morning. The Ghost Lake Pilot officiates."

"I'll come if it won't upset Eve," said Darragh.

"She won't notice anybody. I fancy," remarked Stormont.

He stood by the veranda and watched Darragh take the Long Trail through the snow. Finally the glimmer of his swinging lantern was lost in the woods and Stormont mounted the stairs once more, stood silently by Eve's open door, realized she was still heavily asleep and seated himself on a chair outside her door to wait and watch.

All night long it snowed hard over the Star Pond country, and the late gray light of morning revealed a blinding storm pelting a white robed world.

Toward ten o'clock, Stormont, on guard, noticed that Eve was growing restless.

Downstairs the flotsam of the forest had gathered again: Mr. Lyken was there in black gloves; the Reverend Laconi Smatter and arrived in a sleigh from Ghost Lake. Both were breakfasting heavily.

The pretty, sulky-faced girl fetched a tray and placed Eve's breakfast on it; and Trooper Stormont carried it to her room.

She was awake when he entered. He set the tray on the table. She put both arms around his neck.

"Jack," she murmured, her eyes tremulous with tears.

"Everything has been done," he said. "Will you be ready by eleven? I'll come for you."

She clung to him in silence for a while.

At eleven he knocked on her door. She opened it. She wore her black wool gown and a black fur turban. Some of her pallor remained—traces of tears and bluish smears under both eyes. But her voice was steady.

"Could I see Dad a moment alone?"

"Of course."

She took his arm; they descended the stairs. They seemed to be many people about but she did not lift her eyes until her lover led her into the dance hall where Clinch lay smiling his mysterious smile.

Then Stormont left her alone there and closed the door.

In a terrific snow-storm they buried Mike Clinch on the spot he had selected. In order that he might keep a watchful eye upon the trespassing ghost of old man Harrod.

It blew and stormed and stormed, and the thin, nasal voice of "Rev. Smatter" was utterly lost in the wind. The slanting lashes of snow drove down on the casket, building a white mound over the flowers, blotting the hemlock boughs from sight.

There was no time to be lost now; the ground was freezing under a veering and bitter wind out of the west. Mr. Lyken's talented assistants had some difficulty in shaping the mound which snow began to make into a white and flowless monument.

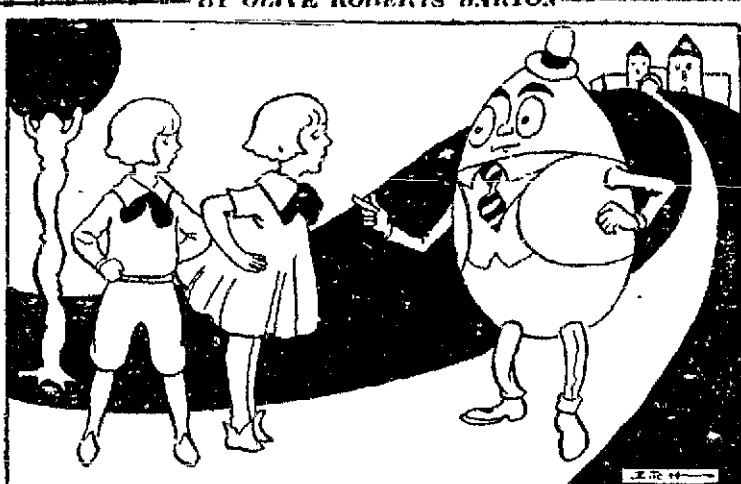

The last slap of the spade rang with a metallic put across the lake, where snow already blotted the newly forming film of ice; the human denizens of the wilderness filtered back into it one by one; "Rev. Smatter" got into his sleigh, plainly concerned about the road; Mr. Lyken betrayed unprofessional haste in loading his wagon with his talented assistants and starting for Ghost Lake.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

Twins Meet Humpty

BY OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

But suddenly they came face to face with the most curious person.

Nancy and Nick landed on the Humpty Dumpty Star.

The journey had been quite easy, for all they did was to make a wish, and whiz, whiff! There they are on a nice bright, shiny star all flat on top and with a big castle in the middle.

The Twins looked around curiously. A road led up and down and over a hill and through a valley and across a bridge, but no one was in sight.

Nancy and Nick followed the road and by and by they came to a night-snow wall. Still no one was in sight.

But suddenly they came face to face with the most curious person. It was an egg, my dears, but with arms and legs and a face.

Without so much as a "hello" it started to talk.

"Isn't that the silliest piece!" it remarked.

"What piece?" asked Nancy curiously.

"The one that goes, 'Humpty' alone?"

"Of course."

She took his arm; they descended the stairs. They seemed to be many people about but she did not lift her eyes until her lover led her into the dance hall where Clinch lay smiling his mysterious smile.

Then Stormont left her alone there and closed the door.

PROSPERITY IS AT HAND IN U. S.

All Lines of Business Settling Down to Normalcy

OPTIMISM IS UNANIMOUS

Statements Given Out by Leaders in Nation Survey

NEW YORK — (United Press)—Prosperity and winter are coming on hand in hand, according to a symposium of heads of the nation's industries.

When Charles M. Schwab declared in a recent speech that never in his career had he foreseen better conditions than are "just ahead," he raised a question which was answered today in exclusive statements to the United Press by ten outstanding business men of the country.

Increased employment, vouched for by the labor department at Washington, better home conditions for the great purchasing public, permitting more business with lower prices and a general settling down to normalcy, are given as some of the reasons for the unanimous optimistic outlook toward the coming winter and spring.

Among the industries canvassed were: Packing, textiles, hotels, movies, clothing, shoes, automobiles, furniture and the American farm bureau. Exclusive statements from heads of these industries follow:

PACKING
"The meat packing business is in a better condition than it has been for several years," declared Charles E. Herrick, president of the Institute of American Meat Packers. "Meat values are more nearly stable now and the export trade continues somewhat larger than during pre-war years. The entire packing industry faces the future with confidence."

TEXTILES
The outlook in the cotton and wool industries is very encouraging, according to Alston H. Garside, head of the industrial department of the Merchants' National Bank of Boston.

"Mills have increased operations to a point where they are now running on an average of 90 per cent of normal," Garside said. "And the industry is practically free from labor difficulties. There is some uneasiness as to whether consumers will be able or willing to buy the usual volume of goods when recent advances in raw materials and goods markets are passed on to them, but for the present the mills are receiving a large volume of orders."

HOTELS
"Everything indicates prosperity," says E. M. Statler, head of the Statler Hotels system, speaking on business conditions. "We have seen a decided increase in business from the last 60 to 90 days throughout the cities in which we operate. Previous to that there had been a decrease as compared with last year."

"As far as I can see, this new prosperity seems to be general. The tide has turned and it seems as if this era of increased trade will continue."

CLOTHING
Samuel Weill, president of the Stein Bloch Company, wholesale clothiers, says:

"Our trade shows marked improvement and the spring sales are increasing substantially. The outstanding danger to the present favorable conditions would be a disposition to speculate or over-expansion."

SHOES
"Business today is much better than it was a year ago," says L. Holmes Dalton, an official of the Brockton shoe company. "Manufacturers believe hard times are behind and sound prosperity ahead. Not boom times, but good conditions with a demand for higher grade shoes."

LABOR
Labor conditions are better and the free hides provided by the new tariff are sure to help consumers on prices, altho raw material is now cheaper here than it is abroad."

AUTOMOBILES
"Business is holding up well during the later part of 1932, and prospects for 1933 are especially bright," said H. M. Jewett, president of the Paige Company, in Detroit.

Both the Dort Motor Company of Flint, Mich., and the Dodge Brothers agree with Jewett that 1933 will be a record year in their industry.

FURNITURE
There is no justification for a material increase in furniture prices, says William B. Wreford, active secretary of the Retail Furniture Association of America. Walnut and mahogany are both down, according to Wreford. Some manufacturers, have announced that they would be forced to advance prices, but this should not be necessary.

MOVIES
"Experience seems to indicate that the support of amusements follows rather than precedes the curve up or down of general prosperity," declared Will Hays, high commissioner of movies. "In almost every locality the attendance at motion picture houses is now increasing," he said. "Two causes may be given: that property is returning and that better and more interesting pictures are being shown this winter."

Cecil B. DeMille, producer and director, declared prosperity is here.

but only for those who produce pictures of "number one" quality, as the public is becoming very critical and will accept no second rate productions.

CROPS
This has been a year of good production of grain and other crops, but according to the American Farm Bureau, the farmer will not profit by it, because of the lack of sufficient care to move grain and the consequent high rates of transportation. Another difficulty is that the farmer cannot get large enough loans from the federal farm loan bank. The bureau is endeavoring to have the limit raised from ten to twenty-five thousand dollars.

PIONEER WOMAN OF GOMER DIES AT NEPHEW'S HOME

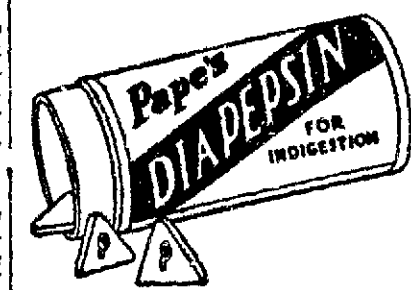

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Roberts, 89, widow of the late David J. Roberts, died Wednesday at the home of her nephew, Robert Watkins of Gomer. She is survived by a brother, T. J. Watkins of Gomer, and Mrs. F. C. Snow, of Spencerville, a sister, at Columbus.

Funeral services will be at the Congregational church at Gomer. Rev. J. V. Jones of Ulster, N. Y., expected. Time for the services will not be fixed until the relatives at Columbus are heard from. Mrs. Roberts was one of the pioneers of this county and was very widely known.

After Years of Bedridden Suffering, Druesen-Kraft Gland Treatment Restored Her Strength and Vigor by Rebuilding Her Glands!

One of the most remarkable cases reported is that of Mrs. Fanny Briggs, 1205 Huron St., Flint, Mich. Mrs. Briggs was crippled on for some twenty-eight years ago and the shock and the shock weakened her. She suffered terrible periods of pain. Her nerves were shattered, she could hardly walk and according to her own statement she was on the verge of suicide. Her doctor finally thought weakened glands might be the cause and advised her to try the new Druesen-Kraft Gland Tablets.

Results of Election Commented

SEES REASONS FOR SHAKEUP

Thinks Wiggly-Wobbly Course
Helped Defeat G. O. P.

BY E. C. FORBES
NEW YORK.—(Special)—The majority of business men will not be particularly exultant over the election results.

It was fairly easy to gauge, while traveling thru all sections of the country, that the administration was going to lose much of its support, a circumstance which was mentioned some little time ago by the writer. The actual figures, however, cannot but make a deep impression.

The complaint most frequently voiced was that the Republicans were without businesslike leadership in Congress. It was pointed out that there was far too much wiggling over important measures, far too much indecision, far too much backing and filling. Various Republican leaders, it was charged, were apparently afraid to exercise the courage of their convictions.

The administration's bonus tactics displeased a very large number of voters, while its tariff action also displeased many. And, of course, the wiggly-wobbly course pursued in international affairs didn't excite very warm admiration in any circles. Nor did the railway and oil strike—business community will not have keen interest in the effect of the election upon the attitude of the actions of the administration from now on.

I promised to tell something about Columbus, Ohio, the last town I visited. It was gratifying to learn from President R. H. Schryver, of the Citizens Trust & Savings Bank, that business in this section has gone along quite satisfactorily. Labor is scarce rather than plentiful.

Unlike many other towns, Columbus is blessed by having a phenomenally large percentage of American born workers. The foreign element is almost nonexistent. There is a definite thinking of Germans but very few Southern Europeans or other non-English speaking laborers.

Judging from a hurried tour of the city, Columbus takes pride in the attractiveness of the homes owned or occupied by the working class. The newer dwellings are particularly high grade.

Columbus is rather proud of the fact that it is not a one industry town. It has quite a number of other important local enterprises. This however, will interest other communities. The city has set its face against striving to attract new industries until it has first put itself in a position to handle properly the serious problems which the advent of new enterprises would bring.

For example, Columbus, being a university town, attaches prime importance to education. Therefore, it wants to build adequate schools, both grade and high, to take care of additional pupils before bringing to the thousands of workers and their families. Unfortunately for the welfare of this republic, some other cities haven't followed quite so sensible and fair a policy.

Evidences of substantiality and a comfortable amount of wealth abound. Not only has Columbus been chosen by many retired families as a place to live, but the state university brings a lot of money and so do other important state organizations located in and around the capital. Moreover, Columbus is quite a military center. Immense quantities of army materials are stored here and I noticed quite a few army officers in the city. While others were busily engaged training students at the University—every student is given military training and facilities are provided for enabling students to pass examinations qualifying them for commissions in the regular army.

are very fine. And, of course, Columbus now has the largest stadium the world has ever seen. It is so gigantic that the Coliseum at Rome was small in comparison. The people, naturally, are tremendously proud of this university structure. The opening football match in it, two or three weeks ago, attracted something like 75,000 people.

The hotels are better than most towns of similar size. But the taxi fare for carrying three of us six blocks, from the station to the hotel, was 90 cents!

Columbus struck me as being a good city to live in and to rear children.

FUEL QUOTATIONS FAVORABLE

Conditions at Delphos Alleviated
Report Indicates

Best quotations on coal since spring were received Wednesday by Service Director Ed Spellman, Delphos, for the municipal waterworks supply. Along with the new prices, shipments are on the increase, he says.

A price of $4 per ton f. o. b. mines from Ohio and Kentucky will give the city the cheapest coal for many months if taken advantage of, according to Spellman.

Coal supply at the waterworks plant is limited, but is not in a precarious condition, Spellman says. The present supply is enough for two months' consumption.

Spellman says as soon as extraordinary shipments peculiar to this season of the year are decreased, coal shipments will be better. Many cars are needed now for sugar beets and automobiles, consequently thousands of tons of coal are held up.

Private coal dealers say the fuel situation is in better condition now than at any time this fall. A considerable supply has been received and much more is on the way. One dealer Thursday reported sales of bituminous coal at $9.50 per ton, almost $2 less than most of it had been selling for.

PARALYSIS FATAL TO JONES

Delphos Civil War Veteran Dies
at Home

Paralysis resulted in the death of Evan H. Jones, 78, former secretary of the Allen-Crow Mutual Relief association, at his home, W. Fifth-st., Delphos, Wednesday. He was stricken Tuesday evening and survived less than 24 hours.

He was a veteran of the civil war, having served with Co. F, 118th O. V. I., from August 21, 1862 to June 24, 1865. Slight injuries were suffered by him in service.

Jones was the first child of Welsh parentage born in Marion-tp. His parents were among the early settlers of that nationality. For many years he was engaged in educational pursuits and was also a surveyor. He was a resident of Delphos more than 20 years. He retired from active life a number of years ago.

Beside his wife, Mahala, he leaves three daughters, Mrs. Leah Bukey, of Cincinnati; Mrs. D. E. Evans, of Toledo and Frances Jones, a teacher in the Flinday schools; also four sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Williams of Lima, Mrs. Hannah Evans and Mrs. Martha Thomas of Gomer, Mrs. J. F. Jones of Cincinnati and a brother, R. D. Jones, Delphos.

The aged was a faithful member of the Methodist church in Delphos. Funeral services will be conducted Friday at 2 p. m. at the home in charge of Rev. W. A. Deaton, burial in Walnut Grove cemetery.

"UNREST CAUSE OF G. O. P. LOSSES"

Reasons for Political Shakeup
Given by Adams

ALSO BLAMES FAKE ISSUES

Party Still Stands by Its Policies,
He Declares

WASHINGTON, (Associated Press).—Retention of Republican majorities in both senate and house was declared to be "very gratifying" to Republican leaders in a statement issued today by John T. Adams, chairman of the Republican national committee, reciting some of the causes which he considered responsible for the outcome of Tuesday's election.

The spirit of unrest following the world war, an unusual prominence of local issues over national issues in many states, the use of "fake" issues to befog the general situation and the natural tendency of a large class of people to vote for a change in off years were credited by the party chairman with responsibility for the paring down of the Republican majorities of two years ago.

"The political off year," said the statement, "always witnesses a decided reaction from the majority of a presidential election. With very few exceptions, the congress elected in off years has been of pessimistic political faith to the administration. In view of this, the retention of control of congress by the Republicans this year is very gratifying."

SPRIT OF UNREST
This is especially true in view of the spirit of unrest which prevails throughout this country as a aftermath of the great war. Such a spirit always visits its dissatisfaction upon whatever party may be in power. At such times the only thought that appeals to a great class of people is a "vote for a change" regardless of the issues involved or the records of the contending parties.

In addition to this situation there were issues of real importance in some states which took precedence over national issues, and in other places opposition to the present administration raised "fake" issues in order to befog the public.

POLICY UNSHAKEN
"The results do not change any of the fundamentally sound principles of economy and government. Neither do they shake the determination of the Republican party and this administration to stand by these principles. Today the Republican party is more than ever the one party of construction and Americanism as against the forces of destruction and internationalism. Those who supported the Republican candidates in this election were fully appreciative of this fact. The dominant issues in every community as well as in the nation. This Republican administration will continue its program of rigid public economy which has already resulted in a slashing of public expenditures and reduction in public debt and taxes.

"The party will remain steadfast to those underlying principles of all enduring governments."

MEN OF FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH-HOLD BANQUET

W. E. McMullen, president of the Men's Brotherhood Class, was toastmaster Wednesday evening at a gathering of about one hundred men who banqueted at the First Baptist church.

The principal speakers were E. J. Rollings, of the Biederwolf party, and T. P. Pomeroy, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. Rev. I. J. Miller, 416 W. Spring-st., pastor at large of the Lutheran church, made a short address.

The orchestra of the church furnished music. Dale Marshall, C. E. Xander and Mrs. W. R. Roberts gave several vocal selections.

CROW BIG WINNER

Lima Judge Gets Plurality of
Over 15,000

Conservative estimates place the plurality of Judge Phil Crow, Democratic candidate for the court, at 15,000 in the Third Judicial district of 18 counties, at 15,000, similar to his plurality in the primary election in August.

Judge Crow won his Republican opponent, Judge Younger of Celina, by 245 in his home county of Mercer. The Lima man carried Allen-co by 4,740, Hancock by 2,420, Seneca 3,376, Henry 1,116, Defiance 1,200, Auglaize 603.

E. J. Dempster, Lima man, defeated in the primary for the Republican nomination, ran third as an independent candidate. He was defeated in his home county of Allen by Judge Crow 6,405 votes and by Judge Younger 1,665.

'SWEETIE' STARTS SPOUSE HUNT

Wife Thinks Telegram Forgery—
Called "Babe" by Mate

CHICAGO.—(United Press).—Because a telegram called her "Sweetie" instead of "Babe," Mrs. Jean Morris Lightman Decker, Nashville, Tenn., beauty and bride of Allen Decker, of San Francisco, appealed to police today to find her husband.

Mrs. Decker said her husband went to Elkhart, Ind., on business yesterday and hasn't come back.

"He has been kidnapped, or something," she told police. "Allen always called me 'Babe' and his telegram of last night called me 'Sweetie.' I know that some one else wrote me that telegram."

In the message Decker said he would be back on the next train.

"I met every train from Elkhart last night, but he didn't show up," she said.

Mrs. Decker told police she gave Hubby her safety vault keys just before he left.

"I really don't know much about him," she said. "He owns several large ranches in California and is connected with the Durant Automobile Company."

"We met in a business way and I didn't have time to find out much about him. We were married a week ago after we had known each other two weeks."

Police here wired authorities at Elkhart, Nashville and San Francisco.

CANDIDATES MUST FILE REPORTS OF EXPENSES

All candidates for office who sought preferment at the hands of the electorate in the Tuesday election, must file the accounts within ten days after November 7, showing sums received and expended in aid of their candidacy.

This applies to all candidates, whether they won or lost or whether they received or expended any money whatsoever, according to J. M. Madigan, chief deputy of the board of deputy state supervisors of elections for Allen-co.

MOTORISTS URGED TO USE CARE NEAR SCHOOL GROUNDS

Exercise of more care in passing school zones is asked of Delphos motorists by Chief of Police Henry Kehres, to whose attention several narrow escapes from injury of school children have been directed.

Despite the fact that auto drivers are allowed to proceed at a rate of 20 miles per hour on Delphos thoroughfares, they should check their cars to minimum when passing schools and pay more attention to the zone signs which are in plain view, Kehres says.

The chief declared appearance of school children on the streets is negligible, but there is always the danger, he says, that a tot will suddenly dart from the playground to the street in pursuit of a baseball or other plaything.

"BREAKS" MANY TIMES DECIDE FATE OF GAME

(BY "BO" McILLIN)

What part does luck play in the winning of a football game? Oftentimes the results are attributed to either good or bad luck. If you will allow me to substitute "breaks" for luck I will agree with the sport writers in saying that the breaks in a game often decide the outcome.

In Centre's first game with Harvard I remember of hearing Fitzgerald, their quarterback, saying "Wait for the breaks, boys, we'll get one in a minute." And sure enough they did.

Soon after the start of the second quarter Murphy, the lightest man to ever play in the stadium, was seen in to punt for us. The kick went straight up in the air and out of bounds on our 30-yard line.

This was the break that the Crimson were looking for. They had little trouble in carrying the ball over in successive plunges because the pep and fight was taken out of our men by such a poor kick.

HARVARD WANTS FOR BREAKS

If one will read the history of the Harvard victories he will note that the majority of their drives which result in touchdowns were inspired by a break in their favor. They are coached to hold their opponents and wait for the breaks.

In 1919 Centre won from the University of Indiana because we took advantage of a break. We had a bad third through three periods and there was only about four minutes left in the fourth. The score was 3 to 0 in favor of Indiana. The cadet band had formed to lead the victory march.

Just at this time an Indiana back fumbled on their 40-yard line and a Centre man recovered. I used a silent signal and shot a pass to Armstrong which gained 15 yards. Before the "Hoosiers" could recover from the shock of the fumble and the completed pass I had shot Roberts over the goal line in three plunges.

We made another touchdown in the remaining minute and a half on an intercepted pass and the final score was Centre 12, Indiana 3.

Now do not think that you could attribute this victory to luck, for if we hadn't possessed the power and fight to take advantage of that break the cadets would have had their parade.

SUCCESS DEPENDS ON STBS

When a good player is injured and has to be taken out of the game the coach often complains of "hard luck," and if the game results in a loss for his team the sport writers will say that the winning team was a bit lucky.

Of course this is an unfortunate circumstance, but the successful coach will be prepared for just such an emergency and will have a trained substitute to take his place.

I believe that the strength of a winning football team lies in the strength of the substitutes. If it had not been for the substitutes at

Centre last year being almost as strong as the regulars we could not have had the success we did have.

I have noticed that a great many of our smaller college teams are built around one man and if he has to leave the game his team goes to pieces. A successful football team cannot depend upon one man but must work as a machine to come out on top. It is true that all good coaches are not fortunate in having capable substitutes and he might go through several games without needing them, but in the long run he will feel the need.

I believe that it is folly for a coach to start his eleven best men in a game because he is sure to need a good fresh man when the breaks go against him.

Quite a few sport writers said Centre was lucky to beat West Virginia in 1919. We unquestionably outplayed them in all departments of the game and the breaks certainly in their favor. Once we were forced to punt on our 15-line, Roberts, who was doing kicking in that game, dropped about 10 yards. I blocked the punt and looked around just in time to see Red completely miss the something I have never been happening in a football game. Had the "Mountaineers" taken advantage of this break they could have easily crossed our goal line. Instead, they foolishly called out and allowed us to recover the shock, which we did and them for downs.

Columbus Seeks Johnston To Fill Managerial Berth

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — "Doc" Johnston, the veteran first baseman of the Athletics, may manage the Columbus team of the American Association next year. Negotiations are under way, and it is said Manager Mack will not stand in Johnston's way of advancement.

Johnston is a veteran big leaguer having been service with the Cardinals and Philadelphia in the American League and Pittsburgh in the National. Most of the time that he has spent in the minors has been in the south. He played for Milwaukee the year Jack Egan handled that club, and his good work got him his chance with Pittsburgh.

While Johnston is no longer able to stand the strain of a big league campaign he has plenty of good ball playing left in him and should zoom in the minors as a playing manager.

Johnston is a hustler, possesses the old fighting spirit, and has always been popular with the players. It is believed that he would retain all three essential qualities as a manager. The fine showing made by Hauser as first base for the Athletics has won him that position, and no doubt he will have to deal with Mack on getting Johnston out of the league.

TRAVEL IS BIG HANDICAP TO FOOTBALL ELEVEN

DANVILLE, Ky. — Charley Moran, famous coach of the Centre College team, was the least happy of the coaches who defeated Nebraska and Harvard ran rough-shod over the husky Florida eleven.

"When a team travels 1000 miles to play a football game it spots the opposing eleven a touchdown, when the distances range around 2000 miles it means giving a two-touchdown handicap."

"Travel robs a football team of much of its pep." Because the facilities limit the time that can be taken to make the journey it is impossible to give the team much rest prior to the game. Then there is the climatic and food conditions to contend with.

When a team takes a long jaunt to play a football game the coach can figure he is spotting the opposition to a touchdown or two before the start of the game."

YOST OF MICHIGAN TALKS ON GRIDIRON THRILLS

What is the most thrilling play in football? What is the most intense play in football? Pleading it, Yost, coach of Michigan, replying to the first question: "The most thrilling play of a game depends entirely upon the situation. Any play can be a thrilling play and the game play can carry so much thrill at all. It all depends upon what the play means and what it results in."

"A simple play in midfield that gains nothing cannot hold any thrill. The same play resulting in a touchdown carries the thrill of the game. It all depends."

BILLY EVANS SAYS

Just at present the most talked about young man at Princeton is Right End Gray of the varsity football team.

Gray, by his brilliant work in the game with Chicago, has won the right to have his name inscribed on the Princeton roll of honor.

Never in all its history did a Princeton football team want to win a game more than the clash with Chicago. I do not except any of the annual clashes with Yale and Harvard.

Last fall Princeton had been more or less disgraced in the eyes of the football experts by a 9 to 0 defeat at the hands of Chicago.

Princeton wanted to wipe that affair off the slate. A victory was necessary. In addition, a new agreement between Yale, Harvard and Princeton eliminated all future western trips. Princeton wanted to sever Chicago relations with a victory over Stag's team.

No player on the Princeton eleven played a more prominent part in fulfilling the wishes of Coach Bill Roper than Right End Gray.

Near the close of the first period, Cleaves of Princeton hurled a beautiful 45-yard pass toward the Chicago goal. Gray made as beautiful a catch. He was downed on Chicago's seven-yard line. Four plays put the ball over. Cleaves and Gray made possible the first Tiger score and put Princeton out in front, 7 to 3.

In the third period Gray blocked a Chicago kick on the Chicago 34-yard line and recovered the kick on the 22-yard line. This great play gave Princeton another great chance to score, which was lost when a forward pass failed by inches of making its own first down for Princeton on Chicago's 12-yard line.

With the score standing 13 to 7 against Princeton and the Tigers seemingly out of it, Gray recovered a fumble on the Chicago 66-yard line.

Two Chicago players were only a few feet away when Gray recovered the ball. Instead of falling on the ball and playing it safe, he scooped the pigskin up in true Sam White style, handling it like a baseball and running the rest of the distance for a touchdown.

Gray of Princeton was surely the outstanding figure in the Chicago game. His name will furnish football gossip on the Princeton campus for weeks, years yes to come.

Then, to the astonishment of the 30,000 fans and the Chicago team, he hurled a beautiful forward pass to Gorman standing on the Princeton 10-yard line. The fleet little quarterback ran it to the 40-yard line before he was downed.

I have never seen anything quite like it for nerve. It was a play that required "guts" plus perfect execution. Cleaves and Gorman proved they possessed both.

It was a pretty play and the Tigers seemed out of danger. Then it became apparent that something was wrong with the play. The officials ruled that Cleaves was not eligible to receive the pass. The ball was brought back and a penalty inflicted.

To my way of thinking one of the greatest plays ever saw on the gridiron was pulled by Princeton in the Chicago game. It was a risky play but it worked, and it probably saved the day for the Tigers.

South-Troy Game Assumes Role Of Collegiate Battle

Deep secrecy surrounds the stunts which are to be put on before the game and between halves of the Troy-South battle on South Field Armistice Day.

The announcement that spectators would be given all the hilarity and spectacular "doings" which are common at college games, said that the only feature that would be made public was the American Legion Drum Corps, which is being counted upon to furnish stirring music.

The other stunts, which are being rehearsed by South students, are being kept secret in order that their novelty will not be dulled by advance notices.

Troy, which comes to Lima, touted as a team likely to upset doze and which has promised to put up the fight of their lives against the Blue and Gold aggregation, will play against a new lineup.

Frey, South tackle, broke the small bone in his right leg against Van Wert and will be out of the game for the rest of the season. It was announced Tuesday. The seriousness of the injury was not discovered until an x-ray had been taken, although Frey left the game against Van Wert, thinking that he had torn a ligament in his leg.

The loss of Frey has compelled Coach Burdette to change his line guard, and it is fairly who steps into the breach. Egry has been playing end most of the season, but was shifted to guard against Van Wert. He will go against Troy as tackle and one of the four men, who are working hard to make the first team will step into Egry's old hole.

Smith, DeVoe, Straker, and Lutzman are the four candidates for the job. Although Coach Burdette will probably not decide who is to fill the berth until just before the game.

Central, which meets Piqua at Piqua on Armistice Day, will enter the fray, handicapped by crippled Coach Thibert plans to save the strength of his team as much as possible and it is probable that a great many of the second string men, will start the game, to be replaced by regulars, should Piqua be too strong for the reserves.

Athletic authorities of both schools have not set a definite date for the annual South-Central game, although a meeting for this purpose will be held soon.

Public opinion seems to be divided, and a sentiment is growing to play the game in the afternoon. The afternoon battle is snatched by those who seem to feel that larger attendance would come after the Thanksgiving dinner.

South High officials say that it would be folly to change the date changing the time, although they meet the wishes of Central. South will make it that a can be drawn up, making it race to play the game at the same time.

Even if Centre College is shut off the Harvard schedule next the Little southern institution that it has established a record against the Crimson that will last for a long time.

Centre has met Harvard for consecutive years on the field. Centre won one game lost two, but in each game he to cross the Harvard goal line. In 1920 Centre was beaten, 14, after holding Harvard on terms until near the close of game, when lack of reserves to the tide of victory to Harvard.

Centre's great showing in game led to a return engagement second chance at Harvard C emerged the victor by the margin of 6 to 0. "Bo" Mc made the winning touchdown.

This year, after getting a break in the opening period, Harvard scored three times, outplayed the Crimson in the game, losing 24 to 10.

Few colleges in three consecutive meetings on the Harvard field claim one victory and the end of the Harvard line one or times in each game. It is 1 of which little Centre may well proud.

LONGEST RUN: When Chuck Palmer of Western ran 102 yards after eating a fumble in the game with nesota, the claim was advanced he had tied a football record of standing. It was an error.

The football records credit Lafayette and Boynton of Illinois with runs of 110 yards. McCaa made his run a Swarthmore in 1909, while Be performed his against Hamill 1920.

Palmer's run enabled Northern to get a 7 to 7 tie with nesota, the first big upset of the in western football.

BANQUET BID

The Delphos high school football team has been extended an invitation by the Van Wert H-Y club to attend a banquet after the game Armistice Day at Van Wert.

Coach Eugene Gornell, Superintendent H. R. Hick and Principal Warner have been invited to be present. Members of the Van Wert High school grid eleven will also be in attendance.

SEVEN DAYS AND SEVEN NIGHTS IN GOTHAM

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)

M. JAMES W. DEAN, the New York correspondent for this column, writes weekly a review of his wanderings among stage and film folk; what plays he has seen and the best movies. In this column, he keeps one interesting material, that keeps one in touch with the greatest dramatic center in the world.

Herewith we present one of Mr. Dean's "ramblings." We think it quite interesting and perhaps you will too.

"Saw James Young, movie director. He says 'What the movies need is trained, qualified actors.'"

"Saw 'Robin Hood,' a beautiful film ever made. Duration, 110 minutes. Saw Miriam Battista in Nazimova eight times. Mary Kay look at her husband, Dick Barkness, more admiringly than any of the girls in the crowd. Rudolph and his bald spot. George Fawcett with a face like a bull dog. John Barrymore, idly and restlessly, Doug overcame emotion when he tried to talk and Mary getting the same way when he brought her to the stage."

"Saw 'Six Characters in Search of an Author,' Brock Pemberton's play that the morose can't understand."

"Saw Tom Leighton in a potboiling film called 'The Man Who Saw Tomorrow.'"

Popular Stars In This Brilliant Film

GEORGE FITZMAURICE, in producing "To Have and Have Not," the film from the famous story by Mary Johnston, has evolved a beautiful and romantic screen offering. Years ago, you will remember, Mae Murray appeared in a version of the story, but the present telling is on a more expensive, more artistic order, indicative of the forward trend of the cinematographic art.

The story weaves back and forth from Virginia in the pioneer days to King James' dissolute court in England. The king's ward, Lady Jocelyn, is ordered to marry the king's favorite, but to escape this fate, she boards a "bride ship" bound for the colonies, where she meets a brave and gallant gentleman, who marries her and practically moves heaven and earth to hold her.

"Miss America" Features Faurot Program Today

THE current bill at the Faurot Opera House ranks high with attractive entertainment in several lines, the headline being the presentation of Miss Mary Katherine Campbell, of Columbus, the most beautiful girl in America.

Miss Campbell was chosen from among hundreds of entrants in a national beauty contest, held recently in Atlantic City, N. J., and is now touring the Keith circuit. Her appearance here is made thru the special efforts of Manager Clark, and is another example of the calibre of vaudeville being secured for local patrons.

Prize Winners In New Orpheum Baby Contest

ON Wednesday afternoon, the New Orpheum theatre was the scene of much fondling, cooing and incidentally waiting, when a number of Lima women assembled to enter their babies in a contest to determine the most perfect baby under one year, also between one and three, and lastly, the cutest child.

Saw Mike Goldreyer, 24, a week ago an assistant press agent, today producer of one of the stage's biggest current successes, "The Last Warning." . . . Saw E. W. Giffith again and he still needs a hair-cut. . . . Saw, on the screen, natives of India struck down by soldiers without offering to strike back—their idea of winning a battle thru non-resistance. . . . Saw Heywood Brown and Christopher Morley at Jackie Coogan's "Oliver Twist" luncheon. . . . Saw Tom B. Johnston, once a newspaper artist and now collecting royalties for the music of "Molly Darling." . . . Saw "The World in Which We Live" a Czech insect comedy which affords a worm's-eye view of humanity and a stinging satire of war. . . . Saw a magnificent storm scene in "The Town That Forgot God," a movie very ordinary in every other respect. . . . Saw Channing Pollock, author of "The Fool" which promises to run for many months. "I thought it would run only for a few weeks," he told me. . . . Saw Pete Smith and Harry Wilson, demon publicity hounds from Hollywood. Each gave me a fat cigar and I gave them away. . . . Saw Helen Menken in "Seventh Heaven." She's the most forceful, realistic actress on Broadway today. . . . Saw Bebe Daniels. Shall write more of her anon."

You see, this is an adventurous and swashbuckling type of picture. The gentleman all wear the picturesque clothes associated with that period in history, you know, dainty lace at the wrists, and trousers cut to reveal shapely calves. Rather becoming to the majority of the cast, too.

Bert Lytell makes a splendid hero. Mr. Theodore Kosloff a cunning and effective knave and king's favorite, while Betty Compson as the fair heroine, is perfectly adorable. These three are well supported by other members of the cast, including Lucien Littlefield, Raymond Hatton and W. J. Ferguson. Also, the photographer lent his best efforts to the production. AND the director.

You will like "To Have and Have Not" I am sure. It's at the Quilna theatre this week-end.

On the same program with Miss America appear Laurel and Lee, a corking comedy act, with three additional offerings of real merit.

Three performances daily, including matinee.

A scale of weights, furnished by Dr. Bates, was used as a criterion in deciding the most perfect child. Master Bobby Crawford, four months old, lacked but a few ounces of the correct weight, and was awarded a handsome loving cup, as the most perfect baby.

Little Miss Jeannette Landfair, twenty-two months old and a twin,

Kathryn McGuire, Mack Sennett features her in "The Sheik of Araby." She was in "Crossroads of New York."

Pauline Garon. She played in "Sonny." Now she's cast in leading role of Cecil DeMille's next.

was awarded the second prize, a baby ring. Her weight tallies almost perfectly with that of the doctor's scale.

Baby Jean Cochran, only four months old, was awarded the third prize, a set of gold pins, as the cutest baby among the entrants in the contest.

Announcement of a similar contest, to be held at the New Orpheum in a short time, was made on Wednesday by Manager Shaw. At the time, a local doctor will again aid in determining the most perfect tot, according to weight, and a list of valuable prizes will be awarded.

THEATRE DIRECTORY

Miss Mary Katherine Campbell, chosen as "Miss America" at Atlantic City recently, is the headline attraction today at the Faurot Opera House, where a new program of Keith vaudeville becomes effective.

AT THE SIGMA

"Skin Deep," a Thos. H. Ince special starring Milton Sills in a splendid role, terminates its engagement today at the Sigma theatre. Florence Vidor, Gertrude Astor and Marcia Manon appear in the supporting cast. Also a comedy and News.

AT THE LYRIC

House Peters appears to advantage in the Universal special "The Storm" appearing again today at the Lyric theatre. The supporting cast includes Matt Moore and Virginia Valli. Special musical score accompanies the production.

AT THE NEW ORPHEUM

"The Wintergarden Girl," featuring Hal Kitter and the entire Bill-

has the chief feminine role. The picture shows Mr. Chaplin as an escaped convict who, to save his hide, disguises himself as a clergyman.

Nazimova expects to return to the "legitimate" stage under the direction of Earl Carroll.

Jane Novak is vacationing.

Frank Mayo has signed to play a featured lead in "Souls for Sale." Production will be made by Goldwyn from the Rupert Hughes story. Mr. Mayo has just completed his contract with Universal.

Stuart Payton is directing "The Attic of Felix Bayu," from the Earl Carroll play. It will be on the order of "The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari."

Clarence Buddington Kelland is supervising the filming of his "Backbone" at Island Park, Me.

Many comedies burlesquing Doug Fairbanks in "The Three Musketeers" were made. Now Frank Lee is being starred in a two-reeler called "Robin Hood, Jr."

Henry King, who is in Rome directing Lillian Gish in "The White Sister," will produce "Old Husbands and Young Wives," by Ralph Proctor, for both stage and screen.

Montagu Love is Alice Brady's leading man in "The Leopardess," being filmed in Florida.

Allan Dwan is to direct "Glimpses of the Moon" with Bebe Daniels in the featured role.

Marion Davis has a monkey and a parrot for pets. Theodore Roberts has added a goat to his menagerie.

DIES IN AUTO WRECK

MARIETTA — Douglas Barchett, 11, of Barlow was killed when the automobile he was driving turned over, plunging him under the machine. The boy's neck was broken. Barchett and another boy companion had appropriated an automobile belonging to the former's brother-in-law for a little spin.

"BREAKS" MANY TIMES DECIDE FATE OF GAME

BY "BO" McMillan

What part does luck play in the winning or losing of a football game? Oftentimes the results are attributed to either good or bad luck. If you will allow me to substitute "breaks" for luck I will agree with the sport writers in saying that the breaks in a game often decide the outcome.

In Centre's first game with Harvard I remember hearing Elrick say, "Wait for the breaks, boys, we'll get one in a minute." And sure enough they did.

Soon after the start of the second quarter Murphy, the lightest man to ever play in the stadium, was sent in to punt for us. The kick went straight up in the air and out of bounds on our 30-yard line.

This was the break that the Crimson were looking for. They had little trouble in carrying the ball over in successive plunges because the pep and fight was taken out of our men by such a poor kick.

HARVARD WANTS FOR BREAKS

If one will read the history of the Harvard victories he will note that the majority of their drives which resulted in touchdowns were inspired by a break in their favor. They are coached to hold their opponents and wait for the breaks.

In 1919 Centre won from the University of Indiana because we took advantage of a break. We had broken through three periods and there was only about four minutes left in the fourth. The score was 3 to 0 in favor of Indiana. The cadet band had formed to lead the victory march.

Just at this time an Indiana back fumbled on their 40-yard line and a Centre man recovered. I used a silent signal and shot a pass to Armstrong which gained 15 yards. Before the "Hoosiers" could recover from the shock of the fumble and the completed pass I had shot Roberts over the goal line in three plunges.

We made another touchdown in the remaining minute and a half on an intercepted pass and the final score was Centre 12, Indiana 3.

Now I do not think that you could attribute this victory to luck, for if we hadn't possessed the power and fight to take advantage of that break the cadets would have had their parade.

SUCCESS DEFENDS ON STUNTS

When a good player is injured and has to be taken out of the game the coach often complains of "hard luck," and if the game results in a loss for his team the sport writers will say that the winning team was a bit lucky.

Of course this is an unfortunate circumstance, but the successful coach will be prepared for just such an emergency and will have a trained substitute to take his place.

I believe that the strength of a winning football team lies in the strength of the substitutes. If it had not been for the substitutes at

Centre last year being almost as strong as the regulars we could not have had the success we did have.

I have noticed that a great many of our smaller college teams are built around one man and if he has to leave the game his team goes to pieces. A successful football team cannot depend upon one man but must work as a machine to come out on top. It is true that all good coaches are not fortunate in having capable substitutes and he might go through several games without needing them, but in the long run he will feel the need.

I believe that it is folly for a coach to start his eleven best men in a game because he is sure to need a good fresh man when the breaks go against him.

Quite a few sport writers said that Centre was lucky to beat West Virginia in 1919. We unquestionably outplayed them in all departments of the game and the breaks were certainly in their favor. Once we were forced to punt on our 15-yard line, Roberts, who was doing our kicking in that game, dropped back about 10 yards. I blocked the tackle and looked around just in time to see Red completely miss the ball, something I have never heard of happening in a football game.

Had the "Mountaineers" taken advantage of this break they could have easily crossed our goal line, instead, they foolishly called time out and allowed us to recover from the shock, which we did, and held them for downs.

Columbus Seeks Johnston To Fill Managerial Berth

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 9.—"Doc" Johnston, the veteran first baseman of the Athletics, may manage the Columbus team of the American Association next year. Negotiations are under way, and it is said Manager Mack will not stand in Johnston's way of advancement.

Johnston is a veteran big leaguer, having been a member of the American League and Philadelphia in the American League and Pittsburgh in the National. Most of the time that he has spent in the minors has been in the south. He played for Milwaukee the year Jack Egan handled that club, and his good work for him has been the strain of a big league campaign. He has plenty of good ball playing left in him and should be right in the minors as a playing manager.

Johnston is a hustler, possesses the old fighting spirit, and has always been popular with the players. It is believed that he would retain his managerial position in the American League.

The first showing made by Hauser at first base for the Athletics has won him that position, and no doubt no trouble will be had with Mack in getting Johnston out of the league.

SIK'S LIFE STORY
By BATTLE SIKI
As Told to Milton Brommer
Chopier Six—The Carpenter Fight

The long road to boxing glory and some money, too, came to me in December, 1921. I finally got into the ring with one of the big fighters of France.

It was Jack Dempsey. Sporting writers came to see me "fill the black." But I won on points in 12 rounds. Then, I had three fights which gave me the chance to force Dempsey to fight me.

In January, I beat Rogers in 12 rounds, winning on points. I outpointed Journein again in March. Finally, on June 23, I beat Alvin Kibbles, the real heavyweight champion of France, winning on points in 15 rounds.

Kibbles was my most important opponent. He often tried to knock me out, but Dempsey always dodged him. They said after I beat him that Kibbles broke both wrists punching my head. All I know he is a game fighter and I learned a lot by fighting him.

That takes us up to the meeting with Georges. The Paris crowd laughed at me in the first two rounds. Sporting writers said I was afraid, and that is why I crunched. They had said the fight would end in the first round. I made up my mind no matter what happened, it would end in the first round for the second.

I knew when it came to science Georges had me beat. I knew all about his swiftness. And they said I could punch awfully hard. I tried to get off in such a way that he could not hit me at all, and if he did he would hit my head in places where a knockout would not follow.

Well, Georges punched me a number of times, when I thought he couldn't, and he gave me all he had, but I soon saw it wasn't enough. His punch wasn't going to knock me out. I had him sized up, saw what he had and believed my punch was superior, my punch at least equal.

I sailed in, and the rest you know. He was courageous, very courageous. He took an awful beating without a whimper, and kept coming in for more until he didn't know where he was at.

Beating him made me the champion heavyweight of Europe and the middleweight champion of the world.

That talk about the fighting chimpanzee is crazy. The point is not the beauty or ugliness of my manner in the ring. The point is I won fairly by taking the best Georges could give and returning blow for blow when I saw the chance.

I want to meet more big men. I make no predictions. I simply fight my best. Who and where I fight next, that is a French matter. He's my manager, and when he says fight, I fight.

If he says, "Siki, you must get ready to fight Jack Dempsey," I would get ready. Dempsey may be a mountain of a man and a wonderful boxer and a great punter and quick as a cat and all the rest of it, but I would take a chance.

I would try to make it lively for Monsieur Dempsey. I would do more. I would try to bring the world's championship to France, for me—I am a French citizen.

I want to go on fighting and make money and save it. Then, some day, when I am beaten, as all fighters are, I plan to settle down in the country in France with my wife and be a farmer. I like to see things grow—cows, calves, babies, chickens and trees.

THE END.

RULES EXPLAINED

More than 100 basketball players and fans attended the meeting at the Y. M. C. A., Wednesday night, to hear the new rules of the game explained by O. J. Detrick, assistant coach at Centre High.

Detrick showed clearly the new rules on the game, and told of the reasons why the rules had been changed. He said that the new rules would add speed to the game.

Following Detrick's talk, I. G. Maxwell, physical director of the Y. M. C. A., a scored professional and declared that players who accepted money for their services did not play for the love of sport, and their efforts tended to lower the standard.

The Y. M. C. A., he said, would not allow professional athletes to compete on the teams, unless they pledge themselves not to play for money.

TRAVEL IS BIG HANDICAP TO FOOTBALL ELEVEN

DANVILLE, Ky.—Charley Moran, famous coach of the Centre College team, was not the least bit surprised when Syracuse defeated Nebraska and Harvard ran rough-shod over the husky Florida eleven.

"When a team travels 1000 miles to play a football game it spots the opposing eleven a touchdown, when the distances range around 2000 miles it means giving a two-touchdown handicap."

"Travel robs a football team of much of its 'pep.' Because the facilities limit the time that can be taken to make the journey it is impossible to have the team much rested prior to the game. Then there is the climatic and food conditions to contend with."

When a team takes a long jaunt to play a football game the coach can figure he is spotting the opposition to a touchdown or two before the start of the game."

YOST OF MICHIGAN TALKS ON GRIDIRON THRILLS

What is the most thrilling play in football?
What is the most intense play in football?

Fielding Y. Yost, coach of Michigan, replying to the first question: "The most thrilling play of a game depends entirely upon the situation. Any play can be a thrilling play and the same play can carry no thrill at all. It all depends upon what the play means and what it results in."

"A simple play in midfield that gains nothing cannot hold any thrill. The same play resulting in a touchdown carries the thrill of the game. It all depends."

Regarding the most intense play: "When your team is kicking from behind its own goal line you have football's most intense play."

"As the teams line up for the punt and you have in mind all the possibilities and the disastrous results of a blocked punt, you get about as much intensity as anything in sports can furnish."

BILLY EVANS SAYS POSTPONED

Just at present the most talked about young man at Princeton is (Right End) Gray of the varsity football team.

Gray, by his brilliant work in the game with Chicago, has won the right to have his name inscribed on the Princeton roll of honor.

Never in all its history did a Princeton football team want to win a game more than the clash with Chicago. I do not except any of the annual clashes with Yale and Harvard.

Last fall Princeton had been more or less disgraced in the eyes of the football experts by a 9 to 0 defeat at the hands of Chicago.

Princeton wanted to wipe that defeat off the slate. A victory was necessary. In addition, a new agreement between Yale, Harvard and Princeton eliminated all future western trips. Princeton wanted to sever Chicago relations with a victory over Stagg's team.

No player on the Princeton eleven played a more prominent part in fulfilling the wishes of Coach Bill Roper than Right End Gray.

Near the close of the first period, Cleaves of Princeton hurled a beautiful 45-yard pass toward the Chicago goal. Gray made as beautiful a catch. He was downed on Chicago's seven-yard line. Four plays put the ball over. Cleaves and Gray made possible the first Tiger score and put Princeton out in front, 7 to 0.

In the third period Gray blocked a Chicago kick on the Chicago 34-yard line and recovered the kick on the 25-yard line. This great play gave Princeton another great chance to score, which was lost when a forward pass failed by inches of making its own first down for Princeton on Chicago's 12-yard line.

With the score standing 13 to 7 against Princeton, and the Tigers seemingly out of it, Gray recovered a fumble on the Chicago 45-yard line.

Two Chicago players were only a few feet away when Gray recovered the ball. Instead of falling on the ball it fell safe. He scooped the pigskin up in true Sam White style, handling it like a baseball and running the rest of the distance for a touchdown.

Gray of Princeton was surely the outstanding figure in the Chicago game. His name will furnish football gossip on the Princeton campus for weeks, years yes to come.

Then, to the astonishment of the 30,000 fans and the Chicago team, he hurled a beautiful forward pass to Gorman standing on the Princeton 10-yard line. The fleet little quarterback ran it to the 40-yard line before he was downed.

I have never seen anything quite like it for nerve. It was a play that required "guts" plus perfect execution. Cleaves and Gorman proved they possessed both.

It was a pretty play and the Tigers seemed out of danger. Then it became apparent that something was wrong with the play. The officials ruled that Cleaves was not eligible to receive the pass. The ball was brought back and a penalty inflicted.

To my way of thinking one of the greatest plays I ever saw on the gridiron was pulled by Princeton in the Chicago game. It was a risky play but it worked, and it probably saved the day for the Tigers.

South-Troy Game Assumes Role Of Collegiate Battle

Deep secrecy surrounds the stunts which are to be put on before the game and between halves of the Troy-South battle on South Field Armistice Day.

The announcement that spectators would be given all the hilarity and spectacular "doings" which are common at college games, said that the only feature that would be made public was the American Legion Drum Corps, which is being counted upon to furnish stirring music.

The other stunts, which are being rehearsed by South students, are being kept secret in order that their novelty will not be dulled by advance notices.

Troy, which comes to Lima, touted as a team likely to upset dope and which has promised to put up the fight of their lives against the Blue and Gold organization, will play against a new lineup.

Frey, South tackle, broke the small bone in his right leg against Van Wert and will be out of the game for the rest of the season. The seriousness of the injury was not discovered until an X-ray had been taken, although Frey left the game against Van Wert, thinking that he had torn a ligament in his leg.

The loss of Frey has compelled Coach Burdette to change his line and, again, it is early, who steps into the breach. Frey has been playing end most of the season, but was shifted to guard against Van Wert. He will go against Troy as tackle and one of the four men, who are working hard to make the first team will step into Frey's old hole.

L. Smith, Deacon, Stricker and Lutzman are the four candidates for the job, although Coach Burdette will probably not decide who is to fill the berth until just before the game.

Central, which meets Piqua at Piqua on Armistice Day, will enter the fray, handicapped by cripples. Coach Thibert plans to save the strength of his team as much as possible and it is probable that a great many of the second string men, will start the game, to be replaced by regulars, should Piqua be too strong for the reserves.

Athletic authorities of both schools have not set a definite date for the annual South-Central game, although a meeting for this purpose will be held soon.

Public opinion seems to be divided.

BANQUET BID

The Delphos high school football team has been extended an invitation by the Van Wert H-Y club to attend a banquet after the game Armistice Day at Van Wert.

Coach Eugene Gorman, Superintendent H. R. Hick and Principal Warner have been invited to be present. Members of the Van Wert High school grid eleven will also be in attendance.

CENTRE MAKES RECORD

Even if Centre College is shunted off the Harvard schedule next year the little southern institution feels that it has established a record against the Crimson that will stand for a long time.

Centre has met Harvard for three consecutive years on the Harvard field. Centre won one game and lost two, but in each game it used to cross the Harvard goal line.

In 1920 Centre was beaten, 39 to 14, after holding Harvard on even terms until near the close of the game, when lack of reserves turned the tide of victory to Harvard.

Centre's great showing in that game led to a return engagement. In its second chance at Harvard Centre emerged the victor by the scant margin of 6 to 0. "Bo" McMillan made the winning touchdown.

This year, after getting a bad break in the opening period, when Harvard scored three times, Centre outplayed the Crimson the rest of the game, losing 24 to 10.

Few colleges in three consecutive meetings on the Harvard field can claim one victory and the crossing of the Harvard line one or more times in each game. It is a record of which little Centre may well feel proud.

LONGEST RUNS

When Chuck Palmer of Northwestern ran 102 yards after recovering a fumble in the game with Alabama, the claim was advanced that he had tied a football record of long standing. It was an error.

The football records credit McCas of Lafayette and Boynton of Williams with runs of 110 yards.

McCas made his run against Swarthmore in 1919, while Boynton performed his against Hamilton in 1920.

Palmer's run enabled Northwestern to get a 7 to 7 tie with Minnesota, the first big upset of the year in western football.

SEVEN DAYS AND SEVEN NIGHTS IN GOTHAM

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)
JAMES W. DEAN, the New York correspondent for this column, writes weekly a column, wanderings among the stars and film folk, what plays he has seen and the best movies. In this column, that keeps one's mind with the greatest dramatic actor in the world.
Herewith we present one of Mr. Dean's "ramblings." We think it quite interesting and perhaps you will too.
"Saw James Young, movie director. He says 'What the movies need is trained, qualified directors. I saw 'Robbie Hood,' a beautiful film ever made. Dursin, in 'The World in Which We Live,' a Czechoslovakian which affords a worm's-eye view of humanity and a stinging satire of war. I saw a magnificent storm scene in 'The Town That Forgot God,' a movie very ordinary in every other respect. I saw Channing Pollock, author of 'The Pool,' who promises to run for many months. 'I thought it would run only for a few weeks,' he told me. I saw Pete Smith and Harry Wilson, demon publicity hounds from Hollywood. Each gave me a fat cigar and I gave them away. I saw Helen Menken in 'Seventh Heaven.' She's the most forceful, realistic actress on Broadway today. I saw Bebe Daniels. She'll write more of her anon."

Popular Stars In This Brilliant Film

GEORGE FITZMAURICE, in producing 'To Have and Have Not,' holds from the famous story by Mary Johnston, has evolved a beautiful and romantic screen offering. Years ago, you will remember, 'The Man Who Saw Tomorrow' appeared in a version of the story, but the present telling is on a more expensive, more artistic and more dramatic of the forward end of the cinematographic art.
The story waves back and forth from Virginia in the pioneer days to the James' dissolute court in England. The king's ward, Lady Jocelyn, is ordered to marry the king's favorite but to escape this fate, she boards a 'bride ship' bound for the colonies where she meets a brave and gallant gentleman who marries her and practically moves heaven and earth to hold her.

"Miss America" Features Faurot Program Today

With current bill at the Faurot Opera House, ranks high with attractive entertainment in several lines. The headliner being the presentation of Miss Mary Katherine Campbell of Columbus, Ohio, the most beautiful girl in America.
Miss Campbell was chosen from more than 100,000 entrants in a national beauty contest held recently at Atlantic City, N. J. and is now touring the Keith circuit. Her appearance here is made thru the special efforts of Manager Clark, and is another example of the caliber of vaudeville being secured for local patrons.
On the same program with Miss America appear Laurel & Lee, a corking comedy act, with three additional offerings of real merit.
Three performances daily, including matinee.

Prize Winners In New Orpheum Baby Contest

On Wednesday afternoon, the New Orpheum theatre was the scene of much fondling, cooing and incidentally wailing, when a number of Lima women assembled to enter their babies in a contest to determine the most perfect baby under one year. Also between one and three and lastly, the cutest child.
A scale of weights, furnished by Dr. Bates, was used as a criterion in deciding the most perfect child. Master Bobby Crawford, four months old, lacked but a few ounces of the correct weight, and was awarded a handsome loving cup, as the most perfect baby.
Little Miss Jeannette Landfair, twenty-two months old and a twin,

Kathryn McGuire. Mack Sennett features her in "The Sheik of Araby." She was in "Crossroads of New York."

Pauline Garon. She played in "Sonny." Now she's cast in leading role of "The Pilgrim" at the Lyric.

was awarded the second prize, a baby ring. Her weight tallies almost perfectly with that of the doctor's scale.
Baby Jean Cochran, only four months old, was awarded the third prize, a set of gold pins, as the cutest baby among the entrants in the contest.
Announcement of a similar contest, to be held at the New Orpheum in a short time, was made on Wednesday by Manager Shaw. At the time, a local doctor will again aid in determining the most perfect tot, according to weight, and a list of valuable prizes will be awarded.

THEATRE DIRECTORY

Miss Mary Katherine Campbell, chosen as "Miss America" at Atlantic City recently, is the headline attraction today at the Faurot Opera House, where a new program of Keith vaudeville becomes effective.

AT THE SIGMA
"Skin Deep," a Thos. H. Ince special starring Milton Sills in a splendid role, terminates its engagement today at the Sigma theatre.
Florence Vidor, Gertrude Astor and Marcia Maron appear in the supporting cast. Also a comedy and News.

AT THE LYRIC
House Peters appears to advantage in the Universal special "The Storm" appearing again today at the Lyric theatre. The supporting cast includes Matt Moore and Virginia Valli. Special musical score accompanies the production.

AT THE NEW ORPHEUM
"The Winter Garden Girl," featuring Hal Kitter and the entire Bill-

has the chief feminine role. The picture shows Mr. Chaplin as an escaped convict who, to save his hide, disguises himself as a clergyman.

Nazimova expects to return to the "legitimate" stage under the direction of Earl Carroll.

Janet Novak is vacationing.

Frank Mayo has signed to play a featured lead in "Sally for Sale," production will be made by Goldwyn from the Rupert Hughes story. Mr. Mayo has just completed his contract with Universal.

Stuart Payton is directing "The Attic of Pella Bay," from the Earl Carroll play. It will be on the order of "The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari."

Clarence Buddington Kelland is supervising the filming of his "Backbone" at Island Falls, Me.

Many comedies built upon Doug Fairbanks in "The Three Musketeers" were made. Now Frank Lee is being starred in a two-reeler called "Robin Hood, Jr."

Henry King, who is in Rome directing Lillian Gish in "The White Sister," will produce "Old Husbands and Young Wives," by Ralph Proctor, for both stage and screen.

Montagi Love is Alice Brady's leading man in "The Leopardess," being filmed in Florida.

Allan Dwan is to direct "Glimpses of the Moon" with Bebe Daniels in the featured role.

Marion Davis has a monkey and a parrot for pets. Theodore Roethlis has added a goat to his menagerie.

DIES IN AUTO WRECK
MARIETTA — Douglas Burchett, 11, of Barlow, was killed when the automobile he was driving turned over, pinning him under the machine. The boy's neck was broken. Burchett and another boy companion had appropriated an automobile belonging to the former's brother-in-law for a little spin.

UNITED WOOLEN CLOTHES
Fit You
Your measurements are taken by an expert designer who makes note of your mental desires as well as your physical proportions.
He drafts a pattern especially for you, embodying therein your own suggestions, coupled with the latest style ideas.
Your garments are cut from this pattern and every detail tailored in accord with your wishes.
When finished, it is your suit, not a suit made for just anybody who has the price—but YOUR suit, made to YOUR measure, patterned to YOUR personality, and styled to YOUR satisfaction.
Our "mill to man" policy saves YOU all the middlemen's profits, while our net profit has never exceeded $2 per suit.

point. There were a number of weak spots at the opening, notably

General Asphalt, which dropped 1/2 point and Gulf States Steel of

Alabama and U. S. Steel common stock, which fell 1/2 point and was quoted fractionally and International Copper lost a point. Foreign exchanges were strong.

The outlook for splendid holiday trade and continued business improvement note favorable foreign exchange and expansion of the economy were responsible for the morning gains in active trading from one to five points. Weakness of the steel group was a temporary depressing effect on the buying of other industrials

when this was dissipated later when the steel group recovered

and its earlier loss of a point and was higher ground. Dividend paying railroad shares were also upped up to two points and was good manifestation of strength in the public utility, oil

SHORT SHAVINGS

Have Ridenour, farmer, and his wife went to a grange meeting. She got tired waiting for the discussion to end. So she took their car and drove in, sending the man home back by a friend. But before the friend in the car completed the return trip, the meeting ended. Her husband came out, found the car missing and guessed that it had been stolen. The alarm was sent out and some enthusiastic thief-catchers were still looking for the car two days after it had been returned and all the circumstances explained.

Arthur Frisbie, 726 E. Market-st., tells about a neighbor who was taking a nap in her room at the head of the stairs on the second floor of her home.

She heard the ice man outside the house call, "Ice!"

Not noticing that it was a new ice man and not the one who had been there for years, she put her head out the window of her room and called, "Bring it in!"

Then she went back to her nap. A few minutes later there was a rap on the door to her room. She thought it was the housemaid. But when she went to the door there stood the ice man with a great square of ice on his shoulder. He had carried it up the two flights of stairs, thinking she lived on the second floor.

"He was so surprised," she reports, "when the door was opened that he stepped backward and nearly dropped the ice."

"Muggsy" McGraw sat down in a street car beside a charming young friend who conversed with such facility and enthusiasm that he didn't get a chance to say anything at all. Several times, he says, he opened his mouth to speak but had to close it again. "I didn't have anything special to say anyhow," he says. "The only thing that troubled me was that others on the car may have thought that when I opened my mouth without saying anything I was yawning."

Judge Hamilton, probate court, made a trip by automobile.

He carried three spare tires and several inner tubes. When he arrived at his destination his entire supply was exhausted. He says, mildly, "I learned quite a good deal about patching tires and putting them on an automobile."

In Bed Eight Months But the Plant Juice Relieved Stomach and Kidneys

IS NOW LIKE A NEW MAN

Crowds of Lima men and women are now calling daily to see. The Plant Juice Man at his headquarters in Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, and have him explain his remarkable new herbal remedy, Plant Juice. News of the wonders

GEO. W. EMERSON

Plant juice is accomplishing has spread rapidly over the entire city and hundreds of Lima people have started to take this medicine.

In many other cities and towns over the United States, more than a million grateful men and women are praising Plant Juice because of relief it gave them. For instance, at Toledo, O., recently, The Plant Juice Man received the following surprising testimony from Mr. George Emerson, who lives at Perysburg, O., a suburb of Toledo.

"My family was told that I could not live," said Mr. Emerson. "I was given up because of liver and kidney disease and yet, since I have taken your Plant Juice, I feel like a new man and certainly want to recommend your remedy."

"For eight months I was down in bed. Finally, when I was able to get up, I found it necessary to get up out of bed six to eight times every night because of my kidney trouble. My stomach was disordered and I could not eat anything without being in misery afterward."

"I kept reading in the papers about your Plant Juice and finally decided to try it and I want to say that this remedy has made a new man of me so that I feel better than for many months. My stomach is in good condition now and I can eat anything without misery of any kind afterward. My kidneys are in excellent shape and I surely want to recommend Plant Juice to everybody."

The Plant Juice Man is at Hunter's drug store, 49 Public Square, Lima, where he is daily meeting the local public and introducing and explaining the merits of this remedy. Free samples given.

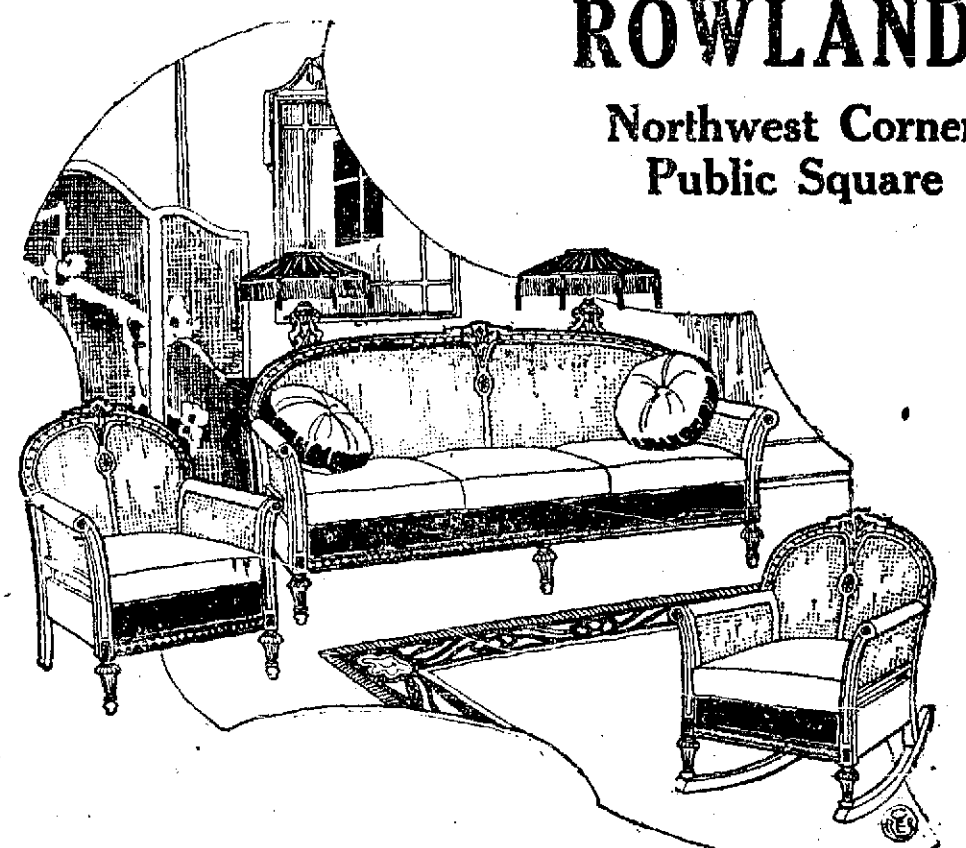

Plant Juice is sold also in Lima at Hunter's drug store at Main and Wayne streets and at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.
